

HUNT SLAYER OF "GOOD TIME" SEEKER

Eastside Youth Object of Wide Police Search

A youthful Eastside ex-convict this week became the object of an intense police search for the knife slayer of Fred Irons, Jr., 28, who died in Methodist Hospital early Saturday morning of three stab wounds in the chest.

William Leonard Haley, 22, 1822 Bellefontaine, suspected of the bloody crime, is being sought in every state between the Hoosier Capital and the Atlantic Seaboard.

Irons, 2530 Kristen drive, was stabbed while he sat in his car with his brother, Bobbie D. Irons, 22, and his assailant, in the vicinity of Military Park, believed to be in the 100 block of Geisendorff.

Bobbie Irons, who brought his older brother to the hospital, gave a description of the killer that police say "fits Haley to a T." Bobbie said the killer was dark brown-skinned, wore a heavy mustache, had bushy hair, was about 5 ft. 7 ins. tall and weighed between 130 and 140 pounds.

Haley, reported by police to have been seen in the vicinity of the crime about the time it was committed, measures 5 ft. 7 1/2 ins., weighs 140 pounds, has worn his hair "conked" and was seen recently wearing a heavy mustache. Haley also had been drenched over his clothing when he was seen on the Westside late Saturday night, according to police reports.

THE FATALITY WOUNDED Irons struck his killer over the head with a full beer bottle during the attack, according to reports.

Detective Sergeants Frank Lotz and Earl Booth, assigned to the case, investigated Haley's home but failed to find the youth. Relatives said he hadn't been there since Saturday evening, around 7 p.m.

The officers described Haley's mother as a "very high-type, religious woman who was extremely emotionally disturbed at the thought her son could have committed the crime."

Capt. Robert Reilly, head of the Homicide Department, told The Recorder Wednesday that Bobbie Irons had changed his story since first reporting the crime shortly after his brother's death.

THE IRONS BROTHERS had been on a drinking spree and had come down on Indiana avenue in a quest of local women, the homicide head said Bobbie Irons finally admitted.

The assailant, who was supposed to procure the women for the men, was picked up at Vermont and Indiana avenue. After the mile ride to the area where the stabbing occurred, the killer demanded money in advance of the women's appearances. An argument ensued, during which the assailant allegedly pulled a knife and Fred Irons grabbed the bottle of beer.

As the man drove the steel blade of the beer bottle into the chest of the wounded man struck out with the bottle. The knife jumped from the car, driven by Bobbie Irons, and fled up the poorly lighted street, the young Irons reportedly told police.

Bobbie earlier told officers the stabbing occurred in the 500 block of Indiana avenue. He had said the motive was robbery.

POLICE TOOK 19 bottles of beer from the Irons' car, also in which were found 13 12-gauge shotgun shells.

Haley, described as "extremely dangerous," came here last June, paroled after serving three years at Ft. Leavenworth for a theft of government property.

Authorities say he is possibly a dope addict and mental case.

The killer of Irons has been linked to two holdups which were committed last week.

RICHARD ROSE AND CHARLES QUILLIN, both of Mooresville, were knifed Friday night by a man who tried to rob them as they returned to their car which was parked north of the Statehouse.

Early Thursday, taxi driver James Drew, 43, 2249 College avenue, said he had been robbed at gunpoint by a man he picked up at the bus station and hauled to Lockfield Gardens.

In each case the thug was described as having a heavy mustache, being 5 ft. 6 or 8 ins. tall, and weighing between 135-145 pounds. He was wearing brown or tan clothing in each case.

'MOTO' RECOVERING FROM STAB WOUNDS

Thomas Farmer, well-known along Indiana avenue as "Moto," was recuperating this week from near-fatal stab wounds received Saturday afternoon during an argument over money.

The 33-year-old man, who lives at 357 W. 13th, was released from General Hospital Tuesday. He received treatment for stab wounds in the upper chest, stomach and right hand.

Farmer told police he was stabbed by a man he knew only by sight.

The knifing occurred in the 400 block of Indiana avenue, he told police.

Mrs. Jacobs Given $100 Week Support

Mrs. Georgia Jacobs was awarded a temporary alimony of $100 a week by Judge Lloyd Claycombe in Circuit Court Friday last week, pending settlement of her divorce case against her husband, Rev. Plummer D. Jacobs.

Mrs. Jacobs filed suit for divorce several weeks ago, charging the assistant pastor of Mt. Paran Baptist Church and prominent funeral director with cruel treatment.

She asked $100,000 alimony and $1,000 attorney's fees.

Represented by his brother, Cary Jacobs, attorney who operates with his brother the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Homes, Rev. Jacobs answered his wife's charges by filing a cross complaint asking that he be awarded the divorce and assessed only a reasonable alimony.

He denied he was worth the half million dollars and $45,000 a year income his wife alleged.

The Jacobses were married May 10, 1935 and separated Oct. 25 this year. They have no children by their marriage. They lived until their separation at 941 W. 25th street.

Max Yergan, Expert On Africa, at YM Sunday

Know This Man?

"The National Deserter Bureau, a non-fee social work and legal aid organization, is seeking CHARLES WHITE-MAN, on a matter of great importance to his family. This man was born in Indiana in February, 1909; is 5ft. 6in. tall; weighs 150 pounds; has black hair; brown eyes; is a painter by occupation; is a Negro. It will be most helpful if anyone knowing of his whereabouts will communicate with this organization at 105 Nassau Street, New York 38, N. Y."

Max Yergan, America's foremost authority on Africa, will be the second speaker on the Monday meeting forum at the Senate Avenue YMCA Sunday afternoon. Dr. Yergan's appearance highlights the local branch's World Service campaign, headed by Dr. George Watkins.

Associated with the YMCA's World Service movement for more than a quarter century, Dr. Yergan became traveling secretary for the student interracial division of the International Committee of the YMCA in 1915, a year later visiting India as secretary of the International Committee and the following year being transferred to East Africa. He later had charge of students' relations in the Union of South Africa.

After prolonged travel and study throughout the Dark Continent, he was awarded in 1928 the Harmon Award for initiating and advancing certain social projects in South Africa. He was awarded the Spingarn medal in 1933 for work along these lines.

Returning to this country in 1936, he co-founded the Council of African Affairs with Paul Robeson, later resigning because of his opposition to the communist led members of the Council.

HE HAS BEEN a lecturer on Negro history at New York City college and has been consulted on African issues by the governments of France, England, Germany and many others including the U. S.

A popular magazine, US News and World Report, in its May 1, 1953 issue published an interview with Dr. Yergan under the title, "Africa: Next Goal of Communists," which touched off a hot debate between the African authority and Walter White of the NAACP over Yergan's opinion of the consideration that should be given Premier Malan's racial policies in South Africa.

The YMCA staff and World Service committee members feel that such an authority on Africa—a prime field for world service movement—and longtime associate of the World Service movement will give proper impetus to the local campaign which will last 10 days beginning with the Sunday mass meeting.

Mrs. Fisher claims Warren overpowered her as she worked in a third floor-corridor and dragged her to his room, on the same floor. The young soldier beat and slapped her until she submitted to his advances, the middle-aged woman declared.

Warren was found asleep in his room. Blood stained the bedding which was taken and held as evidence.

The accused serviceman admitted to officers that he had offered Mrs. Fisher $5.00 to come into his room, police report. The youth added that the woman had refused his offer.

He doesn't remember what happened after Mrs. Fisher's refusal to accept the cash offer, Warren told police.

Governor Names FEPC Members

Eight members of the General Assembly have been named by Governor George N. Craig to the Indiana Fair Employment Practice Commission.

The 1945 law creating the FEPC requires four of the appointees to the 8-member FEPC be senators and four state representatives.

The Lt. Governor, Harold W. Handley, is an ex officio member and the commission chairman.

The Senators named are: Robert Lee Brokenburr, Indianapolis; Warren W. Martin, Jr., Clarksville; Samuel C. McQueen, Brazil; and Jack O'Grady, Terre Haute.

Representatives are: William D. Mackey, Indianapolis; Jesse L. Dickinson, South Bend; Carson H. King, Boggs town; and Samuel L. Biel, Wyandotte Cave.

Hold Rites For Bishop Hopkins, Woman Pastor

One of the few woman pastors in Indianapolis, Bishop V. Hopkins, 58, founder of the World Wide Redeemer, Spiritual Church, n.c., died at her home, 522 Douglass street, on Tuesday, following six-week illness.

Funeral services were scheduled for Friday, Nov. 13, at 1 p.m. at the church, New York and California streets. They were conducted by the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home. Burial was to be in Floral Park.

The body was to lie in state at the church from Thursday evening until funeral time.

Mrs. Hopkins was considered by those who knew her to be uniquely successful as a religious worker.

WIFE, NEGRO DENY KILLING RICH MAN

Amorous Officer Found Guilty By Court Martial

FORT BRAGG, N. C. (ANP)—Lt. John R. Griffin must spend 30 years in prison for "raping" a white woman here. That is the penalty a general court martial arrived at after deliberating only 65 minutes.

Lt. Griffin was found guilty of raping Mrs. Christiana Schuster, 27, a native of Germany.

Mrs. Schuster, the wife of at after deliberating only 65 here, testified that Griffin raped her four times after an evening of dancing, chatting and drinking at the Gunner's Club on Smoke Bomb Hill.

The Negro officer and native of Memphis, Tenn., admitted having intercourse with Mrs. Schuster but said she encouraged it by caressing him and luring him on.

After finding the 25-year-old lieutenant guilty, the court martial board deliberated another hour and 37 minutes before sentencing him. Included on the board were two Negroes.

Lt. Griffin supposedly raped the white woman on the front seat of a car in which the two were riding with a white lieutenant.

The car had stalled and Mrs. Schuster got on the front seat with Griffin. The white officer, Lt. John C. Sloan, supposedly had passed out on the back seat.

Lt. Sloan now faces court martial trial on charges growing out of this case.

Says Eisenhower is Carrying Out His Civil Rights Campaign Pledges

MOBILE, Ala.—While the Eisenhower administration has failed to live up to its campaign promises on labor and farm programs, it has, by and large, adhered to its pre-election pledges in the field of civil rights, Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, said at the closing session of the eighth annual convention of the Alabama State Conference of NAACP branches here today.

"As a candidate, President Eisenhower gave assurance that he would use his executive power to eradicate racial discrimination and segregation in all areas under federal jurisdiction.

"Shortly after his election, he repeated this promise to an NAACP delegation which called upon him," Mr. White told the delegates.

"On the record, it is evident that the administration is trying to live up to this commitment," the NAACP executive declared.

"AMONG ACHIEVEMENTS in this area are:

(1) Revitalization of the Government Contract Committee which has moved to enforce the non-discrimination clauses in contracts the government has let to private firms and which recently succeeded in getting the District of Columbia to include similar clauses in all of its contracts;

(2) The response of Attorney General Herbert Brownell to the invitation of the United States Court to present the government's position in the public school segregation cases.

Hoosier Wins Mich. Parole Job

Leonard R. McConnell, 36, Hoosier born and reared, was appointed a member of the Michigan parole board by action of the state corrections commission recently.

The first Negro to hold this $9,000 a year position, he was named as a result of a movement led by another Negro, Rev. Jesse J. McNeil, Detroit pastor and a member of the corrections commission, aimed at securing the appointment of a Negro on the five-member parole board.

"To represent the staggering number of Negroes in prison," McConnell for the past seven years had served as case work supervisor at the boys' vacation school at Lansing, Mich.

Born in Richmond, Indiana, he is a graduate of Lincoln University and took a master's degree in social work at Indiana university in 1945.

During that period he served as social work at Indiana University. Later he and his wife were cottage supervisors at the Indiana Boys School at Plainfield. While in Indianapolis he was active in YMCA work.

Blonde Denies Illicit Love In Alaskan Murder

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (ANP)—A blonde widow held with a Negro drummer on charges of murdering her wealthy husband, last week denied any romantic interest in the musician.

The widow, Mrs. Diane Wells, denounced as lies a statement of Johnny Warren, 33, a jazz drummer, that he and Mrs. Wells had been "very friendly."

Warren and Mrs. Wells have been indicted for murdering Cecil Wells, 51, in an apartment in a hotel here. Both have denied the charges.

Warren, a native of Mississippi gave a 26-page statement to Oakland, Calif. police at the time of his arrest. In the statement he said he met Mrs. Wells while playing a dance where she was a guest.

"I could see in her eyes that she might appreciate attention," Warren reportedly said in his statement on their first meeting.

When asked about Warren's statement, Mrs. Wells in her denial said in part:

"I have no comment, other than to say that they were all complete lies. I don't know why he said what he did, but everything he said was a lie."

"I only met him accidentally in September, but I didn't know him very well. In fact, I hardly knew him at all."

Mrs. Wells then vowed to catch the slayer of her husband as the only way of clearing her name.

Wells, who owned extensive mining interests, was shot fatally on Oct. 17, while asleep in his eighth-floor apartment.

When arrested, Warren admitted having been in the lobby of Wells' apartment house early in the morning of the day Wells was slain. He said he was waiting for a friend with whom he was to ride to Oakland.

Warren also admitted carrying a gun. He said he did so out of fear of Wells. Police said the gun was the same type as that which killed Wells.

His white wife is an accountant for one of the dead man's enterprises.

Warren worked daytime in a local grocery store in Fairbanks and turned musician at nights, playing at several country clubs.

The tragedy left residents of this town aghast and dumfounded. Mrs. Wells was thought of as impeccable and above reproach.

Rev. J. B. Carter Recalls 50 Years Of Inspired Ministerial Service

"Tell it now," says Rev. J. B. Carter, widely-known pastor of the 25th Street Baptist Church. "Tell the story of my life while I'm living," the ministerial minister asked The Recorder from his bed where he has been confined with an illness for almost a month. The 72-year-old clergyman lives with his wife, Maggie, in their home at 2426 Ethel.

Suffering his second serious illness in three years, Rev. Carter underwent surgery during the current illness.

Although apparently improved and able to leave his bed for short periods daily, the preacher assures all, "I'm ready to meet the Lord. I've lived a full Christian life. And I'm ready."

The down-to-earth preacher who rose from farm boy to pastor of the city's fifth largest Baptist church was born in 1881 at Cumberland Furnace, Tenn.

He came to Indianapolis for the first time in 1902.

All his life he had wanted to become a preacher, Rev. Carter recalls.

"I was called during my early childhood," he asserts with great feeling. "Thank God."

As a boy he read the Bible and preached to his playmates. "I would preach funerals for dead chickens and dogs," he remembers.

He left the Hoosier capital in 1906 and preached his way to Great Bend, Kans., where he stayed until 1910 when he returned home to his ailing mother. She died that same year.

STARTING NORTH again in 1913 he stopped in Dalton Springs, Ky., where he held his first baptisms. He baptized eight persons in an outdoor pond as "thousands" watched.

Mr. Parson Baptist Church, under Rev. B. F. Farrell, welcomed Rev. Carter as a local preacher in 1915 when he returned to Indianapolis.

He gained his first pastorate in 1920 when he was appointed to head the Second Baptist Church.

In two years he built the attendance from 30 to 200. His outstanding work earned him the pastorate of 17th Street Baptist Church where he remained nine years.

When Rev. Carter went to the 17th Street church it was mortgaged and up for sale. During his tenure there, the bills were all paid and the building was remodeled.

Impressive 25th Street Baptist Church, at 25th and Indianapolis avenue, was just a small building without a name or a member, when Rev. Carter took his magic there in 1931.

The building had formerly housed the Mt. Ararat Baptist Church. Rev. W. L. Ware and his

Mt. Ararat congregation had moved to another location.

REV. CARTER stepped in and organized his church with the aid of four associates.

The church boasts a membership of more than 700 today. A recent Sunday collection totaled over $500.

As well known as any of the local Baptist churches, 25th Street has been remodeled three times at a cost of about $50,000.

Rev. Carter has been successful because of his wife whom he married in 1919, the renowned clergyman says.

His Hopkinsville, Ky.-born wife has been a steady source of inspiration and a fire to his ambition, according to him.

"The fairness and harmony of the people with whom I work have made my stay at 25th Street so successful," he declares.

"Then too," he points out, "I believe a preacher is only a servant—not a dictator."

NOTED FOR his earliness, Rev. Carter says all classes of men are equal in his sight.

"There are no big ones, and no small ones," he asserts. "I sat on the same platform with President Herbert Hoover and although I draw much criticism I frequently visit the dens and dives of the city."

"You have to go among the

George Stark Reports Meat Production High

Indiana meat packing concerns, boosting their production 11.7 percent for the first eight months of 1953, are now processing enough meat to feed Indiana's mounting population plus more than one-third of neighboring Kentucky's residents, George W. Stark, president of Stark, Wetzel & Co., reported this week on the basis of figures compiled by the American Meat Institute, of which he is a member of the board of directors.

"With slightly more than four million Indiana residents to feed, this contribution toward state self-sufficiency is no small feat," Stark pointed out.

"The spread of grass agriculture and the development of the soil conservation program have helped tremendously in the development of livestock production in the state which, in the end, of course, provides a much needed increase in local supplies for processing."

Mrs. Alice W. Hughes Dies In Chattanooga

Mrs. Alice Whitaker Hughes, who left her home here, 784 W. 25th street, a month ago in an effort to recuperate from a seven years illness, died in her native home, Chattanooga, Tenn., Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hughes, 45, died in the home of a sister, Mrs. Florence Waterhouse. It was expected funeral services and burial would be held there this weekend.

Mrs. Hughes, a resident here for 15 years, was active in Bethel AME Church until illness forced her confinement to her home.

She had been a member of the Bethel Choir and its Boosters Club.

A graduate of the high school in Chattanooga, she attended Wilberforce University.

She is survived by her husband, George Hughes, who was convalescing in Springfield, Ohio at time of her death; a daughter, Mrs. Ethel Whitaker, June graduate of Ball State Teachers College with honors; three sisters besides Mrs. Waterhouse, Mrs. Ethel Coker and Mrs. Ruth Casey, both of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Emma Johnson, Chicago; and two nephews.

administration has failed to submit a civil rights legislative program to Congress and also recalled that, as a candidate, General Eisenhower had made no promise to support a federal FEPC with enforcement powers.

The NAACP, he asserted, is continuing its efforts for a comprehensive civil rights legislative program including an FEPC with enforcement powers.

He expressed the hope that the administration would present such a program to the next session of Congress and push for its enactment.

Senator Irving Ives of New York, he said, had at the suggestion of the NAACP proposed revision of the Taft-Hartley labor law to ban discrimination and segregation by employers and labor unions covered by the act.

DURING THE COURSE of the court martial, both sides made much of the condition of Mrs. Schuster's clothes and body. Atty. Harry Groves, representing Griffin, pointing out that none of her clothes were torn.

In defending Griffin, Atty. Groves told the court board that Mrs. Schuster "was a woman on the make and her relations with Lt. Griffin were planned at the officer's club."

The attorney noted there was no tear on her undergarments; that she did not get out of the car for fear of her life as she claimed after advances began.

"Why didn't she remove herself from the front seat if she feared for her life?" Atty. Groves asked the court board. "Why did she wait until after the fourth sexual act to get on the back seat? Why didn't she get back there earlier?"

THE PROSECUTION presented photographs showing bruises on Mrs. Schuster's neck, blackened eyes and swollen lips. The prosecution also presented a pair of bloodstained pants and a shirt which Lt. Griffin had worn the morning of the incident.

Pointing to the shirt and pants, Lt. Salvatore Co. Imbrogno of New York, the prosecutor, said: "Look them over—they're saturated with blood. They demonstrate beyond words that there was no consent."

Appearing in behalf of her son was Mrs. Louise Griffin who told the court he had been a good boy and a steady church worker. Lt. Griffin was active in the Episcopal Church of Memphis.

Also testifying in behalf of Lt. Griffin were Maj. Robert D. Dearth and Warrant Officer William J. Leatherberry, both white officers, who praised Lt. Griffin as a gentleman with whom they had associated.

Lt. Griffin's sentence will be reviewed by higher authority. Immediately after sentence, he was taken to an undesignated confinement.

LUNCHEON FETES JESSE STEVENSON'S

Mrs. Julia B. Pene was hostess to a lovely buffet luncheon last Thursday night at her home, 3874 Byram avenue, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stevenson, whose marriage was solemnized the preceding Saturday night in the home of Rev. William Edwards.

Mrs. Stevenson is the former Miss Bessie Mae Nolan, daughter of Mrs. Gustavia L. Gray, Kansas City, Mo.

Guests were Mesdames Helen Vinson and Myrtle Wigginton, the Misses Louise Mays, Ann Cooper, Furas Biggins and Mildred Hubbard, who assisted Mrs. Pene and Messrs. George Blair, Joe Ellis and John Ware.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson received many useful and beautiful gifts.

ORO STUDENT GIVEN AWARD

Mrs. Grace Elliott, 2254 North Kenwood avenue, was recently awarded first place in an "outstanding student" event held at the Poro Barber and Beauty College and was given a complete violet ray set by Mrs. Laura E. Hughes, principal of the college as first prize in a personality and salesmanship contest. Other prizes went to Laura Hayes and Nora Sanders.

Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Essie C. Taylor recently attended a national board meeting of the Poro Association, Inc., of which Mrs. Hughes is vice-president. Mrs. Hughes also attended national group meetings in Newark and Orange, N. J., and New York.

Kenneth Hydes, Pate House Guest

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hydes, 425 Highland place, entertained a dinner last Sunday honoring their guest, Mrs. Sophia Sumner, 111 Columbus, O.

Other guests were Mesdames Myrtle Joyner and Bessie Reed, Miss Ella Poppo, Jody Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Swann. After dinner the group drove to Plainfield to view the anch-type home being built by the Swanns.

Personals and You

Rev. J. C. Brewer of Aurora, Ill., presiding elder of the West Chicago District of the A.M.E. Church, was called to the city last week by the serious illness of his niece, Mrs. Clarissa Covington, director of the senior choir of Bethel A.M.E. Church.

Charles W. Ford, 3924 Byram avenue, is in St. Vincent's Hospital for a major operation. Friends may call at Room 443.

Rev. J. M. Blaha, pastor of the All-Nation Church of God in Christ, Terre Haute, was in the city on business Monday and was a pleasant caller at The Recorder office.

Mrs. Emma L. Moore, 749 West 25th street, was pleasantly surprised last week by a visit from her nephew, Jim Long, who arrived from the West Coast and was stationed at Camp Atterbury, a native of Sheffield, Ala., he served in World War II and the Korean conflict.

By JULIA JEFFERSON

Representatives of sixteen clubs, with banners flying high, participated in the 25th annual "Woman's Day" sponsored by the Elizabeth Carter Council, city council of women's clubs, last Sunday afternoon at Barnes Chapel Methodist Church. Palms and beautiful flowers a colorful background.

Mrs. Edna Isom, president of the Indiana Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, was guest speaker, talking on "Women Building Houses." She was presented by Mrs. Blanche Cross, president of the Elizabeth Carter Council.

"To speak of man as a builder of houses is the usual routine," Mrs. Isom said. "He is a great builder, and because of it, civilization has gotten its foundation in the world."

"To speak of woman as a builder is somewhat of a fancy. She has merely been looked upon as a destructive force, from the first woman until now. The houses she builds are not of wood, steel or brick, but she is building Woman has done much in helping to lift man from where he was to where he is today."

"A silent partner, she is not the exterior, but the interior, which will last throughout eternity. The materials of her houses are made of character, sympathy, understanding, knowledge, hope and faith. Buildings made from these things will stand firm in the evening glare of the last sunset."

Mrs. Isom noted that each club could have a program of legislation and that, in keeping with the Bicentennial Registration for Indiana program, each woman register to be able to carry out the state federation's expansion plans.

Closing, she said, "We live in a time when much building needs to be done. Women who have drunk well of the cup of sorrow will sit upon the doorstep in an unformed cluck and teach their sons to make a clean tomorrow."

The Woman's Council will meet with the Misses Anna and Frances Stout, 543 Drake street, November 23. Mrs. Willa Owsley is president.

The Lend-A-Hand club will meet Monday with Mrs. Reba Diggs, 6307 Grandview drive. The last meeting was a birthday celebration for five members Mrs. Edith Banks is reporter.

The Household Art's club will meet Tuesday with Mrs. Ellen Collier, president, 2250 Bellefontaine street. Mrs. Hazel VanSickle is reporter.

The Progressive Needlecraft club will meet Friday at Flanner House with Mrs. Maud Robinson as hostess. The club's annual tea will be given at the home of Mrs. Vernora Ferguson, 2920 North Capitol avenue, Sunday afternoon at 4. Mrs. Irene Georgia Robinson is reporter.

Paid Presidents Day was observed at the last meeting of the Elizabeth Carter Council. Gifts were presented in appreciation of past services. The book "The Man Called Peter" was given in memory of Mrs. Elizabeth Herod, who died a few weeks ago.

A Thanksgiving shower for Alvin Home will be given at the home Tuesday afternoon at the next council meeting.

Apostolic Faith Pastor Rev. H. S. Holiman

REV. HAROLD S. HOLIMAN

The new pastor of Bethel Tabernacle Apostolic Faith Assembly, located at 20th and Martindale avenue, is the Rev. Harold S. Holiman, returns to the city after five years of Mission and Evangelistic work in California. Rev. Holiman ministered in Christ Temple, Indianapolis, for two years as assistant pastor and ten months as acting pastor. He also pastored Bethel Tabernacle Church at South Bend, Indiana, and Christ Church in Springfield, Illinois. He was installed last Sunday by Bishop Austin Layne of St. Louis, Mo.

er, student of theology, and pastor.

HER KEEN MIND had a wide grasp of practical matters, as evidenced by her payment of more than $40,000 held for the church in which she held services.

She also was reputed to own and manage a large number of residential properties, which she rented at reasonable rates.

She was a member of Indiana Lodge of Elks, 104, and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Tillman Harpole Post, 249, American Legion.

She pastored the church since founding it four years ago.

Born in Nashville, Tenn., she lived here more than 40 years, having attended public schools in her native home. She began her preaching career more than 20 years ago as an evangelist. Her philanthropy and acts of kindness to those less fortunate were extended to many persons.

Surviving are the husband, Ollie Hopkins; daughter, Mrs. Josephine Wilson, Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Virginia Schaeffer, New York, and Mrs. Daisy Bridgits, Nashville;

AN APPRECIATION

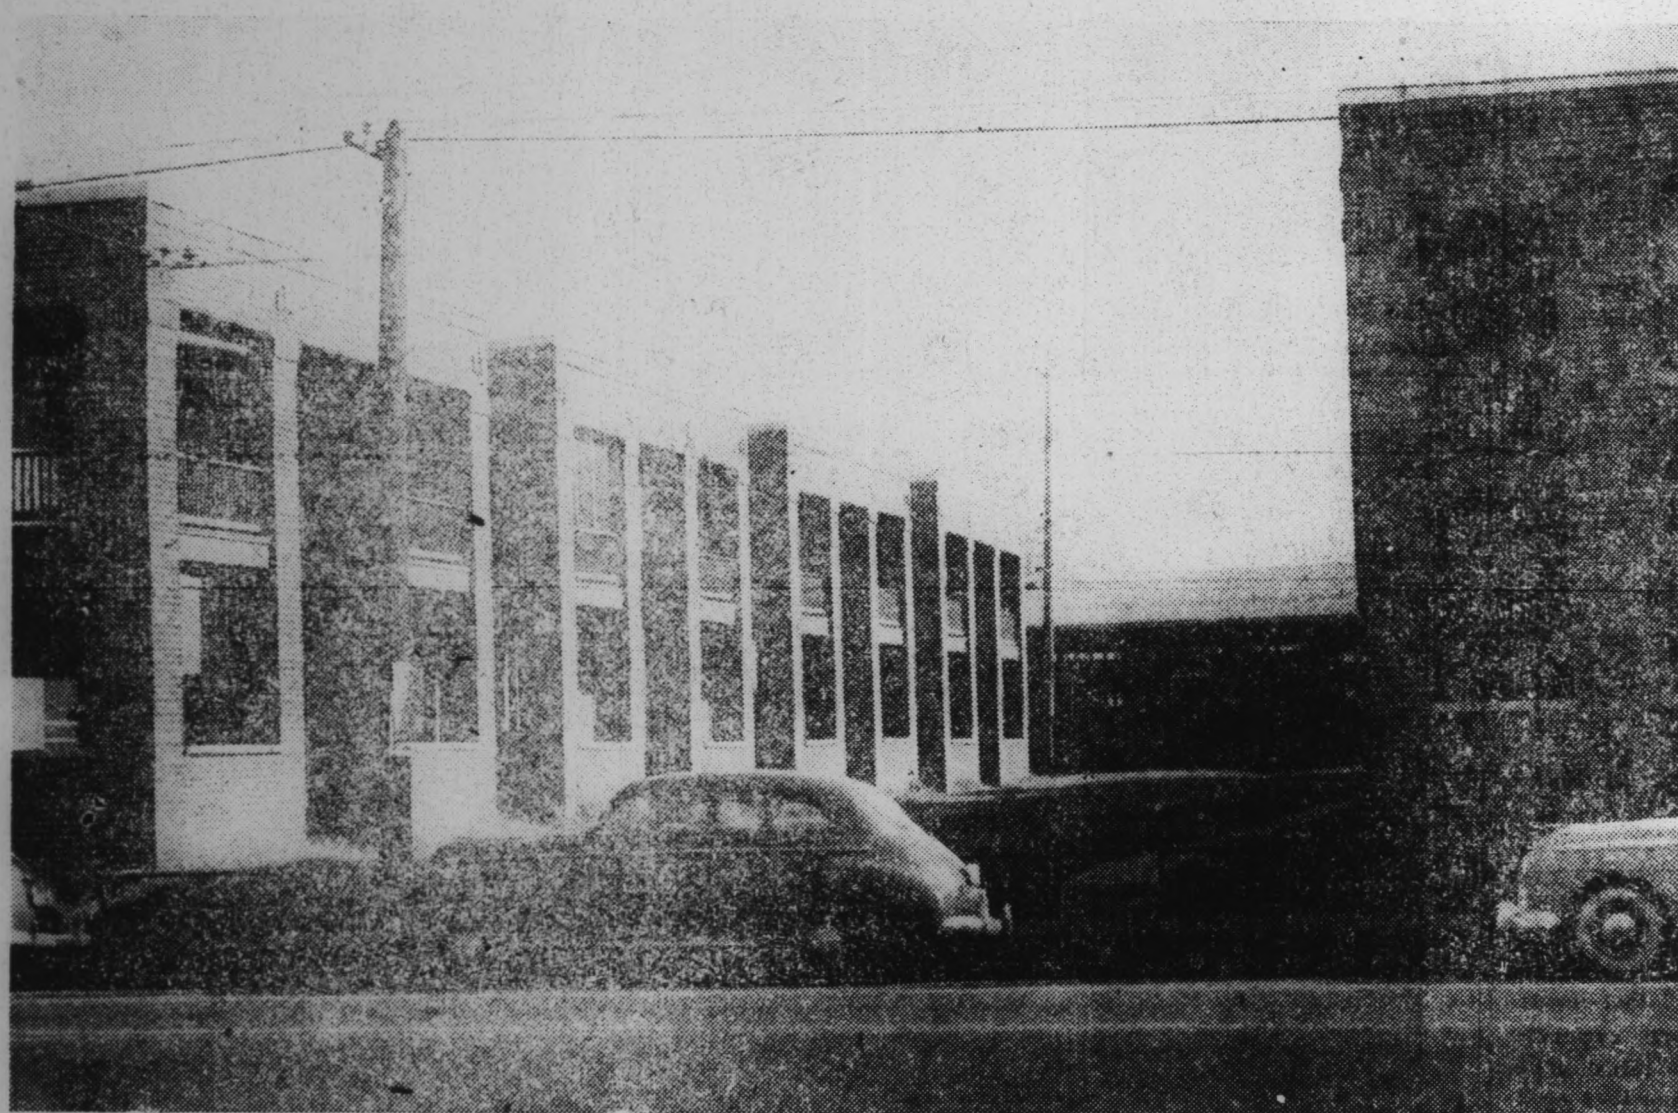

Words are inadequate to express a human feeling yet I wish to offer my sincere gratitude to the Shiloh Sunday School and Pastor, the Christian Youth League, Dr. Clive McGuire, Rev. F. Murray, Mr. Donald Overbey, Mrs. Anna Washington, the civil and religious organizations, the very fine singing groups or their representatives, the majestic readers, all the wonderful soloists, the inspiring speakers and all my many friends who attended or sent lovely cards, gifts, floral and financial contributions, and the impressive dedicated prayer from Mrs. Georgeanna Cooper. My overwhelming gratitude to the loyal and devoted committee who worked untiringly to achieve success. Blessed be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian Fellowship.

ENJOY IT... Electrically

THE traditional time of good, wholesome home-cooked feasts is almost here again. But 'midst all the plans for turkey and trimmings sometimes the most important element in preparing these meals is overlooked... the cooking method.
Nothing cooks with such controlled temperature as Electricity... and it's Electricity that makes possible the automatic timer that eliminates tire-some oven-watching. And when the meal is over your pots and pans are cleaner, your kitchen's cooler and your digestion considerably calmer, because...

Avenue Slayers Given 2-to-21

Two local men charged with Indiana avenue slayings were sentenced to 2 to 21 years in the state prison in separate courts in adjoining counties during the past week.
The men are: Preston Manning and Richard Coleman.
Preston Manning, 30, 122 W. 10th pleaded guilty to the slaying of Milton Evans in July last year before Judge James Barrett Friday last week in the Johnson county court at Franklin.
Indicted on a first degree murder charge he was by agreement permitted to enter a plea of guilty to manslaughter.
Coleman, 47, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury of 12 men in the Boone Circuit Court at Lebanon early Wednesday morning and sentenced by Judge Charles F. Thompson immediately.
His attorney H. Perry Smith, Indianapolis, announced his client would appeal.
Coleman was charged with the fatal stabbing of David Strogler, 38, 615 W. Vermont, in the 500 block Indiana avenue. Police said they men argued over a pint of wine.
Manning was charged with beating Evans to death with a steel spike after pinning him against the wall of the Standard Filling station at 614 Indiana avenue.
Evans, described as "over bearing," is said to have stolen $65 from Manning, a taxi driver, and taunting him being a "soft touch." Manning, the Court was told,

Delay Ruling On Wife's Plea For Mixed Family

NEW YORK (AP)—Court action was postponed here last week in the case of a white wife seeking to take her 9-year-old daughter by a previous marriage to England to join her Negro husband.
Mrs. Betine Field Bruce, daughter of multi-millionaire Marshall Field, earned an adjournment of arguments until Nov. 16.
She has filed a petition in the New York State Supreme Court seeking permission to take her daughter, also named Betine, to England to join her husband, Eldridge Bruce, a former Howard University student now studying at the University of London. She said she wants to live in a "non-segregated community" with her husband.
Dr. McChesney Goodall, Jr., her former white husband and father of the 9-year-old Bettine, is opposing the move to take his daughter to England.
Mrs. Bruce, in her petition, contends her daughter's welfare is dependent on accompanying her mother.
is an illiterate, and not of average intelligence. "He didn't bother anyone unless they bothered him," fellow taxi drivers declared.

Noted Baritone On Style Show

T. C. STONE

Theodore Charles Stone, noted Chicago baritone, will be featured as guest star of the fashion show and musical affair to be given at Northwestern Community Center, 2360 Northwestern avenue, Sunday afternoon, November 22, at 4 by the Paris Beauty Salon.
Mr. Stone, widely acclaimed as a singer and commentator, will serve as master of ceremonies in addition to appearing as featured soloist. Having studied at the Sibelius Academy in Helsinki, Finland, where he sang in opera, concert and on the radio, he has sung for at least two royal families, the Crown Prince Olaf and Crown Princess Martha of Norway and King Gustaf VIII of Sweden.
Listed in a leading Midwestern publication as one of the "ten best-dressed men before the public today," he has been featured in fashion revues, on TV and radio and in operatic productions. He has been called one of the country's most versatile personalities in the musical world.

Stone brings a deal of showman-ship, personality and musical alertness to his performance, be it in the serious vein of concert music or the light-hearted variety of theater tunes. (ADV.)

TWIN HAPPY FAMILIES

The Pet Milk Photographer Visits THE MERRITTS of Chicago

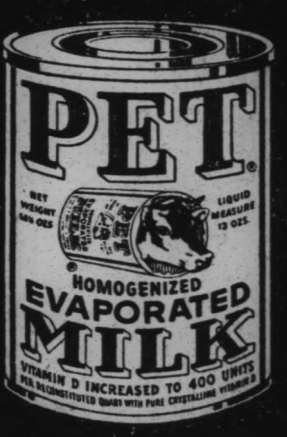

Top Salesmen for Unity Mutual Insurance Company, Aaron has been with company 14 years, Moses 12. Both sell life, endowment, and burial insurance. After hours, they enjoy Cub Scout work with sons Aaron, Jr. and Moses, Jr.

Big 8-room house shared by Merritt families has ample room for everyone! Front row: Kathryn, Moses with 2-year-old Cynthia, Aaron with year-old David, Charlie Mae. Back row: Darrell, 4½; Karen, 8; Aaron, Jr., 11; Moses, Jr., 10½; Jane, 8½; Cassandra, 9; Freda, 7.
Identical twins Aaron and Moses Merritt have hardly ever been separated. Now, married to sisters, they live in the same house, work for the same company, and think of their "twin families" as one family. It's a mighty happy one, too. Kathryn and Moses' three children, Moses, Jr., Cassandra, and Karen, are almost the same age as Charlie Mae and Aaron's oldest three, Aaron, Jr., Jane, and Freda. And the family "babies," Cynthia, David, and Darrell, get just as much love and attention from Aunt Kathryn, Uncle Moses, and their cousins as they do from their own parents, sisters, and brother.
Food-buying's another family affair. Naturally, it takes a lot of groceries for twin families—and naturally, every week's marketing includes plenty of Pet Evaporated Milk! All nine of the children were Pet Milk babies. Both Charlie Mae and Kathryn are enthusiastic about Pet Milk for cooking, use it for all their desserts, gravies, hot breads—with coffee, too. And thrifty Pet Evaporated Milk saves them money every week, because it costs less generally than any other form of whole milk!

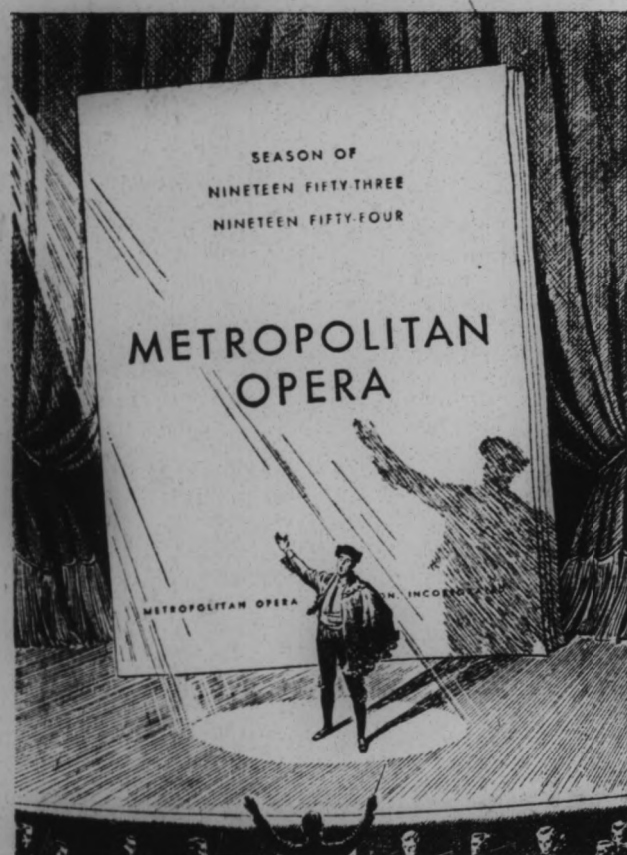

Coffee time and all four Merritts say Pet Evaporated Milk makes coffee extra good. Sharing housework gives Charlie Mae and Kathryn time for work with Mother's Club of Corpus Christi Parish, where Aaron and Moses are active in Holy Name Society, members of Usher's Board.

Muncie Day Nursery Committee Lists Equipment Needs For Year

By MRS. WILLA L. HUNT

MUNCIE—The planning committee of the Muncie Day Nursery held its regular meeting Nov. 5 at the nursery school, with the chairman, Mrs. Karl Kizer, presiding.

Needs were stressed for donations for the new quarters in the First Street YWCA Center, including cots, chairs, tables, bookshelves, playing equipment and dishes. Persons who will make the needed donations should call Mrs. Kizer.

The committee meets on the first and third Thursday nights of each month. Those present last week were Mesdames Mary Lester, Ella Woodridge, Lela Gill, Rosa Ashby and Lucille Williams.

MRS. NAOMI CLEMENS was hostess to the Martha Adams Missionary Society of Bethel AME Church on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 5, at her home, 904 S. Hackley. Mesdames Leroy Williams and Ophelia Newman led a discussion on "Christian Living."

Plans were completed for the presentation of a ravelogue by Mrs. Harry Minor, an Indianapolis public school teacher, who will show slides taken during her European tour last summer. A free will offering will be taken after the ravelogue, and refreshments will be served in the church basement later.

Attending the last meeting were Mesdames Phyllis Harris, Leroy Williams and daughter, Josephine Jackson, Hosea Shoecraft, Ophelia Newman, Lela Gill, Alice Riffe and Margaret Dixon.

MRS. LOUIS LACEY was hostess to the Friendship Federated club last week in her home, 2108 N. Broadway, with Mrs. Zereta Ware in charge. Mrs. Lucille Williams reported on the held meeting of the Indiana Federation of Colored Women's Clubs held recently in Indianapolis, and Mrs. Donia Seates reported on the district meeting held here at Shaffer Chapel AME Church. Plans were discussed for the annual holiday party.

Those attending were Mesdames Lula Reynolds, Zereta Ware, Lucille Williams, Georgia Lucas, James Graves, Agnes Spencer, Donia Seates and Dorena Kersey, who will be hostess to the next meeting Nov. 18 at her home at Dunkirk.

The youth of Bethel AME Church presented program last Sunday afternoon. Among features were a vocal duet by Rosie and Maria Vargas, violin and trumpet selections by Phyllis and Theodore Findley, a solo by Pearl Grimes, instrumental trio by Mary, Edna and Robert Cornell, violin and piano duet by Emma Jean and Austin Crow, solo by Herman Simpson, instrumental selection by Janet Goodall, vocal selection by Jane Ann Burks and numbers by the youth ensemble. The pastor, Rev. Leroy Williams, made remarks.

Mrs. Perk Glenn will present a program at Antioch Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon under auspices of the senior missionary society.

The general missionary society of Calvary Baptist Church observed Men's Day last Sunday, with Rev. L. A. Muel, pastor of South Calvary Baptist Church, Indianapolis, as speaker. He was accompanied by his missionary singing group.

HARVEST DAY was observed last Sunday at Trinity Methodist Church, with Mrs. S. B. Lester as guest speaker. The Sacred Aires presented the program, and a family covered dish dinner was served following the morning service. Rev. C. R. Trice is pastor.

Revival services are being conducted at Emmanuel Pentecostal Church, 1200 N. Penn, each night except Saturday. Mrs. Anna Sherrill, Indianapolis, was the Nov. 1-6, and Rev. Coli Hubble, also of Indianapolis, is in charge Nov. 8-15. Several cars of church people from Indianapolis have attended. Mrs. Willa L. Hunt is pastor.

State Deaths

Muncie Woman Found Dead at Friend's Home

MUNCIE—Mrs. Ellerie Martin Crowford, 34, was found dead Oct. 30 at the home of a friend, Mrs. Louise Wilcox, 1220 E. Highland, with whom she had spent the night. Eugene Elssman, county coroner, who investigated, said death resulted from natural causes. She had been ill with tuberculosis for a long period and had been in the hospital at the Rockville Sanatorium. She had been advised by a public health nurse the day before her death to go to Ball Hospital.

She had, however, stayed with Mrs. Wilcox, who, seeing Mrs. Crowford did not feel well, put her to bed. Early Friday morning, son, Joe Wilcox, found her lying on the kitchen floor. She had been dead several hours. Mrs. Crowford was a native of Muncie and had lived here all her life. Funeral services were held Nov. 2 in the Taylor Mortuary, with Rev. G. R. Mallory officiating. Burial was in Beech Grove cemetery.

Surviving are the father, Blain Martin; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Crumes, and four brothers, Tann, Gran, Theodore and Leonard Martin, all of Muncie.

MUNCIE—Funeral services were held Nov. 3 in the Taylor Mortuary for Mrs. Elizabeth Burres, who died in her home, 180 1/2 Butler, Nov. 1 after a lingering illness. Rev. G. L. Mallory was in charge. Burial was in Beech Grove cemetery.

Surviving are four daughters, Mesdames Rosamary Bryant, Sarah Bass, Marie Scott and Fern Williams, all of Muncie; two sons, John Burres, Jr., Indianapolis, and Billy Burres, Detroit; and two sisters, Mrs. Katie Wilkerson, Muncie, and Mrs. M. Howard, Chicago.

TERRE HAUTE—Funeral services were held this week at St. Paul Baptist Church for Mrs. Lena Martin, who died Nov. 9 at her home. She is survived by her husband, Mathew Martin, Sr., and a son, Mathew Martin, Jr., who lives in California.

2 Men Reported Cut, Police Can Find Only One

TERRE HAUTE—Although two men were allegedly cut in a crape at Scottie's Tavern here Saturday night, police were only able to locate one.

Eugene Hughes, 45, 720 Gilbert avenue, was taken to St. Anthony's Hospital, where he was found to have an eight-inch gash around his throat. The wound started at the back of the neck and extended around the left side of the Adam's apple.

Going to 1414 S. 14th, where the second man was believed to have lived, the officers found a trail of blood leading to the residence, through the house and out into the back yard.

Although there were about 100 persons milling around the tavern, which was described as being a shambles, police could not locate any witnesses to the affray. "What cutting?" was the answer to their queries.

By MRS. PAULA BLAHA

TERRE HAUTE—Mrs. C. W. Saunders, active church and civic worker, last week became the first Negro woman elected to high office in the Vigo County Council of Church Women.

She was elected first vice-president during the group's World Community Day service held at Montrose Methodist Church.

Mrs. Saunders is the wife of Rev. C. W. Saunders, pastor of Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church.

The Vigo County Democratic club elected officers at a meeting Monday night at the Elks' Home. William Stewart is president.

Candlelight services were held Sunday night at Spruce Street AME Church, of which Rev. P. R. James is pastor.

REV. H. CARTER, noted Kentucky minister, is still conducting revival services at Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church. The series will close Friday. William Hardin, native of Monrovia, Liberia, and a student at Indiana State Teachers College, will be guest speaker at the church Sunday afternoon, talking on customs of his country. He will sing native songs.

The missionary groups of the church will give a pre-Thanksgiving dinner Nov. 19 starting at noon. Tickets are now on sale. The church will celebrate its 47th anniversary Nov. 30-Dec. 7. Rev. C. W. Saunders is pastor.

The boys club of the Church of God and Saints of Christ presented a program last week. Rev. W. Saunders, pastor of Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church, was guest speaker. Evangelist-at-large William Kirkland is pastor of the Church of God and Saints of Christ.

Rev. David Perry, pastor of Allen Chapel AME Church, was guest speaker at Sautter's Methodist Church last Sunday.

The Ladies' Guild of St. John's

Baptist Church will present a Woman's Day program Sunday afternoon at 3. Rev. Alfred Robbs is pastor.

The local chapter of the NAACP held its monthly meeting at Hyatt Center on Tuesday night to elect officers for the coming year.

THE VIGO COUNTY Progressive club was organized Nov. 3 at the Vigo County Republican Club Home. Officers elected were Robert Russell, president; J. C. Rutledge, vice-president; Julius Luttrell, secretary; Joseph Smith, treasurer; and Robert Talley, chaplain. Meetings will be held on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month on the third floor of 116 S. 6th.

The Lincoln School PTA served a chili supper last week at the school and presented a program. Speakers were William Hardin of Monrovia, Liberia, and Yusef Qutub of Ramallah, Trans-Jordan.

The Humble Travelers and the Gordon Trio will present the Christmas Singers of Chicago in a program at the Spruce Street AME Church on Nov. 27. Tickets are now on sale.

The Humble Travelers will present a full musical program at Henderson, Ky., Sunday morning at St. John Baptist Church and at night at Seventh Street Baptist Church.

THE CHORAL UNION will hold its third anniversary Nov. 26 at St. John Baptist Church, of which Rev. Alfred Robbs is pastor. Mrs. Beatrice Barham is president.

The Ladies' Senior Aid of Lost Creek Baptist Church will sponsor a Thanksgiving program Thursday night, Nov. 26. Rev. P. Nevells is pastor.

A film "What Greater Gift" was presented at the District No. 3 school at Lost Creek last Friday night in celebration of American Education Week. Pupils of the school rendered an Armistice Day program in the upper-grade room Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Saunders entertained as guests last week Rev. and Mrs. H. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Moody and Mrs. R. Springfield, Providence, Ky. Rev. Carter is conducting a revival at Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church, the whole party were turkey dinner guests of Mrs. Horace Thomas.

MESDAMES MARY SHAUNTEE and Marguerite Robbs visited at Dayton last week.

Elder and Mrs. J. M. Blaha and granddaughter, Patricia Moore; William Hardin of Monrovia, Liberia, and Richard Slaughter were guests at the Overcoming Church of God in Christ, Danville, Ill., last Sunday. Elder Blaha visited in Indianapolis on Monday.

Mrs. Camelia McCarty is confined to St. Anthony's Hospital.

Dr. Bennie Leon Davis recently opened his office as physician and surgeon at 1218 1/2 Wabash, Suite 4. His office hours, daily except Sunday, are 10-12, 2:30-5 and 7-8. His phone number is Crawford 8164.

Local Pastor Closes Revival At Evansville

EVANSVILLE—Rev. F. Jefferson, pastor of Pilgrim Baptist Church, Indianapolis, has closed a successful ten-day revival at Liberty Baptist Church here.

Rev. L. S. Smith, pastor of the local church, announced that 35 members had been added to the congregation during the spiritual campaign, and Liberty Baptist Church held one of its largest baptismal services last Friday night as a result of the revival.

Rev. A. J. Brown, pastor of St. John Baptist Church, Indianapolis, and members of his congregation were special guests along with members of Pilgrim Baptist Church at the local church on Friday nights.

Rev. Smith will celebrate his 27th anniversary as pastor of Liberty Church in December. Rev. Frank Edwards is assistant pastor.

Lawrence Carter, deacon at the church, was general chairman of the revival.

Evansville Association Hopes For Early Opening Of Hospital

By WILLIE EFFIE THOMAS

EVANSVILLE—Members of the Tri-State Community Hospital Association along with various leading business people of the city were entertained at a baked bean dinner last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. George at the regular meeting.

Plans were discussed concerning early operation of the proposed convalescent hospital, and the association noted hopes for plans to be so formulated that a detailed statement can be made to the public soon concerning the beginning of operations.

Among visitors were Rev. Peter Fletcher, pastor of St. John's Methodist Church, and Dr. Ford Gibson, pastor of Alexander AME Church, who endorsed the project and promised cooperation. Also visitors were Mrs. M. L. Grinter, A. W. Jenkins, John Cable, Luther Roberts and P. Person.

Dr. W. Heard presided. Other members present included Mrs. Erma Grimes, secretary; Dr. W. D. Denny, treasurer; Mrs. Denny and Mrs. Julia Ingram.

Listed as a coming event in the fund-raising campaign for the hospital was a "Back Home Hour," to be presented Monday night at Liberty Baptist Church. Plans were also announced for a style show and card party to be held Nov. 30 at the Carver Community Center.

Mrs. Thelma D. Johnson, director of the National Song Leaders' Convention, will present the program for the "Back Home Hour," assisted by Mrs. Zerah P. Carter, director of the choir of Liberty Baptist Church.

Mrs. Anna Vaughn will conduct the style show and card party.

MEMBERS OF NEW HOPE Baptist Church last Sunday greeted their new pastor, Rev. Walter Rogers Brown, Sr., who arrived in the city last week with his wife and son, Walter Rogers Brown, Jr.

Rev. Brown, a native of Winston County, Miss., received his training at Jackson College in Mississippi and the American Baptist Theological Seminary, Nashville. He has served as pastor of First Baptist Church at Louisville, Miss., and Calvary Baptist Church, Meridian, Miss.

Moderator of the Mt. Olive Baptist Association of Mississippi for the past seven years, he has been for ten years a member of the educational board of the National Baptist Convention. He was inspirational speaker for the National Baptist Training Union Congress last year in Milwaukee.

His wife, Mrs. Johnnie Ruth Brown, was educated at Jackson College, Jackson, Miss., and at Tougaloo College, Tougaloo, Miss. A former teacher, she was connected with the Louisville, Miss., high school for eight years.

She has served as president of the Baptist Women's Convention of the Mt. Olive District of Mississippi for a number of years and has also been a member of the Ministers' Wives Committee of the Northeast Mississippi State Convention.

REV. M. H. ALSTON celebrated his 14th anniversary as pastor of Independence Baptist Church on Nov. 1. A special program honoring Rev. and Mrs. Alston was held in the afternoon.

The minister and his wife were seated under an archway of flowers in the beautifully decorated church as the huge crowd of members and friends gathered for the "colorful occasion."

Rev. E. Pullum, pastor of Eastview Baptist Church, Madisonville, Ky., delivered the anniversary sermon, and his choir furnished music. Fleming Leavell, deacon at the church, was chairman of the anniversary observation.

Rev. Alston received his training for the ministry at Simmons University, Louisville, receiving the Bachelor of Theology degree, and he received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Evansville College.

Mrs. Alston, one of the instructors with the religious education classes here, holds a Bachelor of Missions degree from Simmons University.

Immediately following the anniversary program, a reception was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Alston, 625 E. Sycamore, for the church members and friends.

In last week's article on the Evansville Council of the National Council of Negro Women, inadvertently omitted were the names of Mesdames Jane Cole, Ora K. Glass, Bertha Tate, Anna Evans, Welcome Burnett and Maxine Washington.

Urban League Sets Drive For Funds To Finish Building

MARION—A goal of $14,000 was set Tuesday by the Marion Urban League when the group launched a supplementary building fund campaign at a kickoff breakfast at the Hotel Spencer.

That amount will be needed to pay all bills in connection with the completion of the league's new building here, including the final contractors' fees and the snack bar furnishings.

Sam Good, Jr., was chosen to head the drive, and majors and captains for the campaign were also named and inspected the new building after the breakfast meeting.

Party Entertains Plainfield Youth

PLAINFIELD—Miss Kathryn Cullins entertained members of the Youth Fellowship with a Halloween party recently at the Shelter House in Plainfield Park.

Quarterly meeting was held at Bethel AME Church on Nov. 1, with Rev. E. Rice in charge, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Robert Steward, and Revs. W. Byrns, J. Mitchell, A. H. Davis and C. P. Davis and C. P. Swann. The afternoon services were well attended.

The Sunday school board met last week with Churchill Swann as host.

EVANSVILLE — A hearty response has greeted Evansville's first Negro disc jockey—23-year-old Andrew Jackson, who recently became a staff member of the city's newest radio station, WJPS.

During its five-year existence, WJPS has earned considerable praise for its liberal policies. The Evansville NAACP Youth Council has broadcast regularly on Sunday mornings, formerly at 9:30, but last week changed to 10:35.

The "Andrew Jackson Show" is heard from 10:30 to 12 each Saturday night. Deductions are made in response to written requests, and community activities are announced between records.

A native of Indianapolis, Jackson as a tot came to Evansville in 1932 with his father, Andrew M. Jackson, Sr., who helped build the Evansville-Henderson bridge.

Starting at kindergarten at Lincoln school in 1935, the future disc jockey got his first taste of public performance in a play "The Three Bears." He laughingly points out it was his first professional appearance—admission was charged. Also, his mother made suits for all three of the "bears."

HE APPEARED in several plays subsequently, most outstanding his grade school graduation production in which he portrayed "Dr. Jones," a character he himself created.

He had also appeared in radio broadcasts four times during his school career, twice with large "ing" groups. While in the intermediate grades, he was guest star on "Children of the Round Table" and in 1944, while a high school freshman, he recited the Gettysburg Address as a guest on "Our Town" on station WGBF.

In December, 1945, while a youth of 15, he enlisted in the Army, only to be honorably discharged when his father sent his birth certificate to the commanding officer.

Our hero then enrolled at Crispus Attucks high school, Indianapolis, where he became a technical sergeant and taught a class for a short while. Enlisting in the Air Force after two semesters, he later was honorably discharged as a sergeant.

He passed the general education development tests and qualified for a high school diploma, which was awarded Sept. 11, 1951, from Attucks.

Naturally pleased at the enthusiastic response his radio program has won, he says, "I couldn't possibly have accomplished anything worthwhile without the help, patience and consideration of my teachers, mother, WJPS staff, military superiors, friends, relatives and associates."

BAPTIST MINISTERS TO MEET AT EVANSVILLE CHURCH

EVANSVILLE — Ministers and preachers of the Missionary Baptist Church here and in the vicinity will meet at Eastview Baptist Church, of which Rev. J. D. Garrett is pastor, on Nov. 23 to elect officers and hold an important business session. Rev. D. C. Weaver is acting secretary of the group.

Noted Clubwoman, NCNW Officer Visits Evansville, Radio Speaker

EVANSVILLE—Miss Bessie Garvin, East St. Louis, Ill., director of Region V of the National Council of Negro Women, was a recent visitor in this city and was guest on the Nov. 1 broadcast of the Evansville NAACP Youth Council.

Miss Garvin is former president of the St. Louis Council of the NCNW, and it was while she was in that capacity that her dynamic leadership brought the St. Louis group's program and the NCNW at large into added prominence with the famous "One World" tea, held annually, and the intercultural study group on the United Nations and foreign policy.

A well-known teacher at East St. Louis, she is a graduate of Ohio's Wilberforce University and Wayne University, Detroit.

She holds memberships in Delta Sigma Theta and Phi Delta Kappa sororities, the National Education Association, Association of Childhood Education, PTA Council, YWCA, YMCA and People's Art Center, and is a member of the board of directors of the Delmo Federal Housing Corporation of Southeast Missouri.

IN 1950 MISS GARVIN received a citation in Washington, D. C., for outstanding community work in furthering better human relations through the National Council of Negro Women.

While visiting in the city, Miss Garvin was honored at a beautiful luncheon at the Skylark Dining Room at the local airport, where 25 smartly-dressed women were guests. She was introduced to the group by Miss Willie Effie Thomas, organizer of the Evansville Council of the NCNW.

At that time the visitor spoke, and several women became members of the local council.

Miss Garvin was accompanied by the Mesdames Patricia Rouze and Grace Wilson, both teachers of St. Louis. The three, entertained lavishly while here, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Stevenson, 514 E. Cherry.

For the NAACP Youth Council broadcast the noted clubwoman was introduced by Miss Mazola Baltzell, vice-president of the youth council, who was announcer in the absence of Miss Dorothy Carter, who is ill.

guides her career. He sent her to Paris to his best friend, Marcel Ciampi, premier professor of piano at the Paris Conservatory.

THE YOUNG PIANIST has concentrated extensively in Europe, presenting six recitals or concerts in Paris alone. Critics all agree she has "rare sensitivity, a style of interpretation completely individual, which brings her audiences to their feet in acclaim of her great talent."

It took the enthusiasm of the French people to astonish Miss Towles into a realization of her physical assets — the beautiful pianist had grown up in a family where beauty was no premium nor a standard of perfection.

Offered many situations as model by well-known fashion houses of Paris, she made part-time arrangements as a fashion model in order to continue her musical career.

Lafayette Church Group Sets Pre-Thanksgiving Dinner Date

LAFAYETTE — Bethel AME Church has announced plans for a pre-Thanksgiving dinner to be held Nov. 21 in the dining room of the church, starting at 5. The public is invited.

The Sobrite club entertained with a birch day party Friday at the home of Mrs. William Edwards.

Mrs. Robert L. Johnson is ill at her home.

REV. J. R. JORDAN of Monumental Baptist Church, Chicago, was guest speaker at Second Baptist Church on Nov. 1. He was house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pace. Speaker last Sunday was Rev. L. O. Offutt, Louisville, who was entertained at the home of Miss Arletta Winrow.

The Amanda Smith club of Bethel AME Church met last week with Mrs. Robert Harris. Mrs. Sarah Reed was co-hostess.

Mrs. Laura Frances Wharton visited friends in Indianapolis recently.

Mrs. Gilbert Langford and daughter, Cheryl Ann, left last week to join her husband in New York, where he is an engineer.

Mr. Langford is a recent graduate of Purdue University. Mrs. Langford is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Masse.

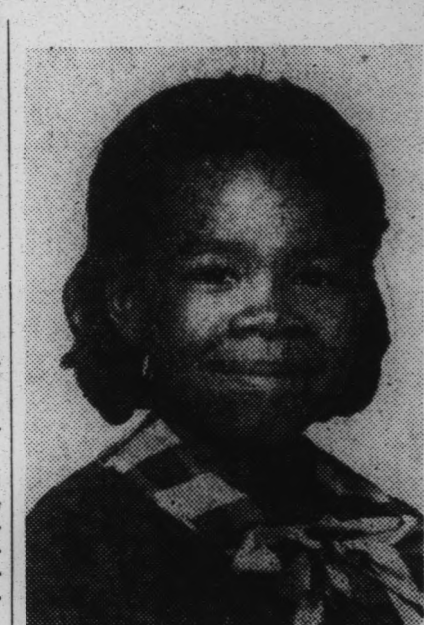

Third-Grade Student on Radio Explains American Education Week

EVANSVILLE — Probably the youngest guest speaker ever to appear on the Sunday morning broadcasts of the Evansville NAACP Youth Council was heard last Sunday morning, when eight-year-old Paulette Pore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pore, 418 S. Linwood, read a paper on the observance of American Education Week in local schools.

In her talk on the 23rd observance of American Education Week, Paulette noted that the theme this year was "Good Schools Are Our Responsibility." She listed activities in Lincoln, Chestnut-Walnut and Third Avenue schools.

Lincoln school was to hold open house Tuesday night from 7 to 8:30, presenting a program featuring work done in various classrooms. A play "Our School Today," was to be presented Wednesday morning.

Open house at the Chestnut-Walnut school was scheduled for 7:30 to 10 Thursday night, with a

CAROLINE OF ILLINOIS

Last week our esteemed columnist, Dean Gordon B. Hancock, in his usual inimitable style discussed "Caroline of Carolina"—the gridiron exploits of J. C. Caroline, the South Carolina youngster who is setting the Big Ten afire and rewriting the record books at the University of Illinois.

To Dean Hancock's excellent column we have only one postscript to add—a note on why it is "Caroline of Illinois" and not "Caroline of Carolina."

According to news reports, the college coach who first recognized J. C.'s greatness while he was still in high school was Rex Enright, grid mentor at the University of South Carolina. But Enright "couldn't use him at South Carolina," so he passed the good news on to his old friend Ray Eliot, the Illinois coach.

Couldn't use him at South Carolina! Couldn't use an All-American!—indeed, a player who bids fair to become an All-Time All-American!

Little comment of ours is needed. If prejudiced persons cannot see from this that segregation is immensely harmful—and is harmful most of all to those who practice it—then there is nothing under Heaven that can make them see.

'DOING WITHOUT' UNCLE SAM

Midst all the frenzied oratory of what we may term the "Latter-Day States' Rights Movement," we believe the cake should go to Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas.

Drawing himself up in righteous self-sacrifice at the Southern Governors' Conference meeting at Hot Springs, Va., Governor Shivers reportedly delivered this gem of historical morality:

"We did without Federal services during the Civil War—and we came back stronger than ever."

The more we look at this marvel of the phrasemaker's art, the more we are astounded. That the South "came back" after the Civil War, much less "stronger than ever," is news to us. We have been believing all along that the South was economically ruined by the war, for a period extending even to the present day.

Then too, a carping critic might point out that what recovery has actually occurred below the Mason-Dixon Line, has taken place under the aegis of the Federal government and not that of Jeff Davis.

Our quarrel also extends, however, to the premise of Governor Shiver's statement. Did the South really "do without Federal service during the Civil War"?

On the contrary, the South was the recipient, during the years 1861-65, of the most all-embracing set of Federal services in the history of the nation! These services, directed from Washington by Abraham Lincoln, were carried out by agents Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and others and a host of Federal employees in blue uniforms. They amounted to nothing less than the re-establishment of constitutional government and the extirpation of slavery in the states which were the beneficiaries.

No doubt there are certain functions which the states and localities can discharge better than the national government. All this hue and cry against "the government," however, is to our way of thinking a veritable disservice to the United States in a time of crisis.

IS TIME RIPE FOR FREEDOM?

A speech on the U. S. attitude toward colonialism, delivered last week by Assistant Secretary of State Henry A. Byroade, was given the unusual treatment of being billed by the State Department as "important." On that we can all agree. This newspaper has often pointed out that the question of colonial peoples is one of the most important facing the U. S. and the world.

Our government realizes that colonialism is dead, Byroade declared, and added:

"Alien rule over dependent peoples must be replaced as rapidly as possible by self-determination. Of this there can be no question."

Here again we can give a hearty "Amen." There is no doubt that the public opinion of the world, including America, has sat in judgment on the colonial system and decreed its end. It is well to have the recognition of this state of affairs spelled out by an official of our government, putting the U. S. explicitly in the camp of freedom.

WHAT SECRETARY BYROADE had next to say, however, could not but raise doubts in the minds of experienced observers as to the genuineness of what he had said before. He warned of the dangers of "premature independence," saying that the dependent peoples must move "step by step" toward self-rule and reach the goal only "when they can maintain stable government." And he raised the specter of Russia, implying that the colonies, if freed, might be gobbled up by the Soviets.

This line of argument is painfully familiar to Negroes who have had occasion to seek first-class citizenship at the hands of a certain type of public official. It is nothing but the old "Time is not ripe" theory in striped pants. According to the usual procedure, the officeholder first agrees emphatically with the aims of the delegation, "Jimcrow must go, of that there can be no question!" Then he turns the record over and plays the other side: "But I am afraid that the time is not yet ripe for the change you are seeking..."

And it is common knowledge that the time never becomes ripe for these gentlemen.

AS FOR US, we believe the colonial peoples should be given their independence now. In the first place, many examples show that an independent nation is better able to defend itself than one in chains.

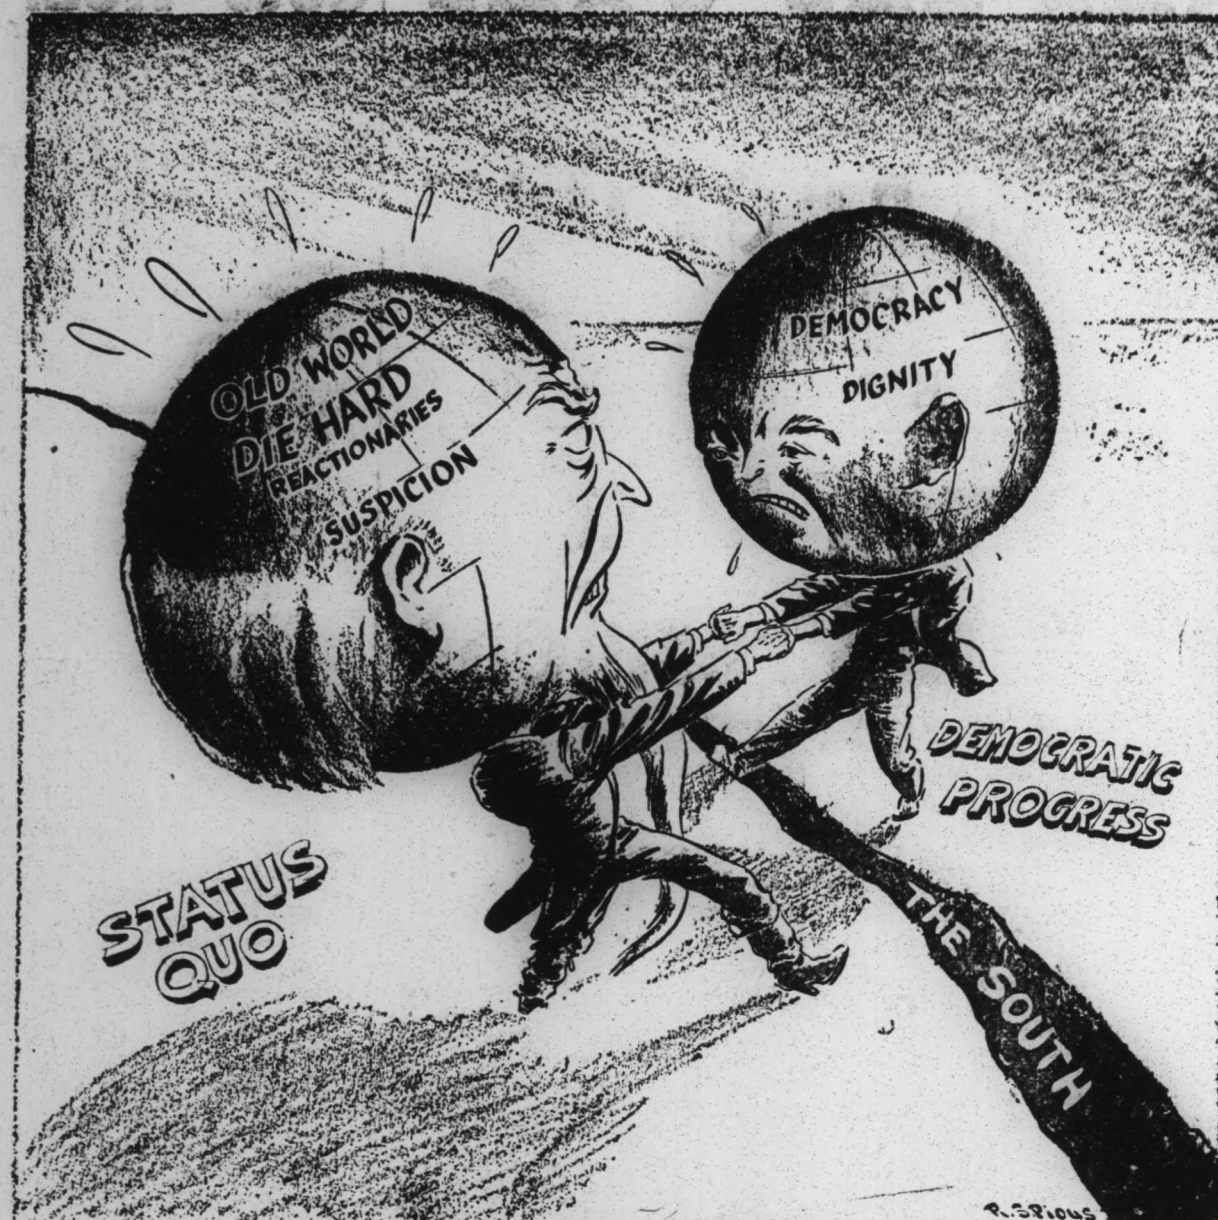

Secondly, it is dangerous to America and her allies for them to try to hold back the self-determination movement. Birth has a way of happening on its own schedule. The colonial peoples are going to be free—and they will judge us by whether we aided them or their oppressors.

STOP THESE BEATINGS OF CITIZENS!

Apparently the city-wide wave of indignation at police assaults on innocent citizens last month had no effect on the Indianapolis Police Department. At any rate another club-happy cop lost no time in engaging in an outrage which was, if anything, even worse.

This character, Patrolman Bernard A. Dugan, reportedly picked on a man who was waiting in the bus station for his wife and son to arrive from another city. As nearly as we can make out, the victim's offense was that he did not grovel at the cop's feet but tried to turn aside the undarranted intrusion into his business. For this he was brutally beaten, suffering head wounds that required 21 stitches.

It is obvious that there has been no real effort by the authorities to re-educate the police force as to the limitations of their powers. When will the Board of Safety learn that the people of Indianapolis are in earnest on this question?

PROBLEMS OF PREACHERS' WIVES

Many who are unconcerned about preachers themselves are bothered by the difficulties that often confront preachers' wives.

Especially when they are good, refined and womanly do they have sympathizers.

But their very gentleness and goodness seem to invite attacks from evil doers.

Some observers of human conduct maintain that good and evil are about equally balanced.

Just how such a conclusion is reached is not clear. But it is not necessary to know the relative amount of the two forces to understand that each exists.

Dealing with people is a burdensome activity. For numerous reasons it is difficult to establish a basis of association that will relieve the mind from doubt and uncertainty in family, business and social matters.

Among them are inability to reason out solutions of problems, littleness or baseness of character and insistence on one's own desires and advantage without regard for those of others.

Hence there is friction and tragedy.

A PREACHER'S WIFE sometimes invites opposition because she is a physical, mental or moral weakling. Having an exaggerated notion of her importance and position, not infrequently she strives to lord it over everybody.

Generally, however, preachers' wives are meek and lowly souls, maligned and trampled on by church bosses and others seeking public notice.

If she is dimly seen because she stays away from the de-annation and conduct of affairs she is belied as being without interest.

If she is active in promoting even the wall-eyed condemn her efforts.

Therefore a few preachers' wives with the capacity to sense the situation and the spirit to aggrapple with it take a foolishness from anybody.

A PREACHER became involved in a love affair with a member of his church.

His wife being told about it, ordered him to bring the adulteress (much younger than the wife) to the parsonage for a conference.

Complying under protest, the adulterer was inclined to support the parson's denial of the charge and attempt to pull the wife until the latter pulled a revolver from her apron pocket.

Pointing it at the offender, the wronged woman commanded her rival to be seated and listen to reason.

Unmoved by their pleas of innocence, the wife gave them their choice of one of two solutions to their problem: get married and live together honorably or end their illegal, wicked association completely.

EYEING THE PISTOL in the grasp of the determined woman, the pitiable preacher pretender declared his undying love for his wife and his intention to stay with her.

Seven years later the adulteress sent a message begging the minister's wife to hurry to her dying bedside.

With a violent effort intensified by the weeping of both women guilt was acknowledged and forgiven.

The confession accomplished, the sin-scarred woman died—apparently in peace.

The wife of a southern preacher was employed in a town a hundred miles away from his church.

A WIDOW MEMBER considered herself superior to everybody in the town.

But, though she possessed considerable wealth, her outlook mentally, morally and socially was low.

She suggested that the preacher take her daughter (a local teacher) for a lover. He declined the offer, not so much on moral grounds as on those of policy.

The misguided, so-called Christian leader then threatened to make it hard for him.

His refusal to be coerced caused him to lose one-third of his salary because of the woman's hostility.

AN EXCEPTIONALLY HIGH-CLASS Chicago preacher and his wife were annoyed by several women who made bets among themselves on who would get him first.

He was man enough to scorn them as being the vile scoundrels that they were.

A few preachers' wives have been known to campaign against their own husbands to make them lose the church.

Thus they hope to get rid of women making love to their ministers, apparently not reflecting that unsavory relations between pastors and women exist everywhere.

ALONG THE COLONIAL FRONT

By A. J. SIGGINS British Journalist

MY PETITION FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

LONDON (ANP)—My Petition to the Trusteeship Council has been circulated to the Member States and it will come up for discussion by the Council in January, 1954.

I wish to have the Petition discussed by the Assembly and by the Security Council because there is a most important fundamental involved.

I am drafting the points which I wish to have discussed. Now that the thin edge of a wedge is in I may be able to widen it and obtain thereby a very important right for African and all colonial peoples.

The British government is afraid that I shall have an opportunity of speaking to the Trusteeship Council and may try to stop me.

They did so in 1949 and Africans have suffered considerably since because nobody enlightened the Council or world opinion as to what was happening.

HAD I BEEN HEARD in 1949 I doubt whether the British Government could have imposed a Federation in Central Africa.

Here is where I need the help of Afro-Americans—not for my me or my sake but for the sake of Human Rights and for the sake of scores of millions of colonials who have been suffering under white imperialists for many decades. I have seen sights in Africa that I cannot forget or shut out by any certain no matter how thick the "wads" may be.

Your American Negroes get very angry about lynchings and beating up of Negroes in the Deep South.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO if thousands were killed, shot like animals?

In my 53 years' experience I have SEEN some terrible sights and heard sound evidence of many others.

And I reported much of what I heard and saw to British authorities and have published some of it in my books.

British, American and S. African big business have always forced the British, French, Belgium, Portuguese and USA governments to act in colonial affairs.

This is clearly seen in S. Central, W. and W. Africa and British Guiana and the West Indies today.

What I am trying to do will affect American Negroes as well as Africans.

I PARTICULARLY WANT some clever Negro lawyers—or whites who are honestly fighting to help Negroes—because there will be some very important legal issues raised as I progress.

We may be able to widen the thin edge of the wedge into a solid base on which Africans can stand and from which they can raise themselves to any heights attainable by other races.

BRITISH POLITICIANS, both Tory and Socialist, are busy apologizing for the "necessity" of making police states out of colonies "built up by love"—the "love" that enables Big Business to suck millions of pounds annually in profits out of a colony like British Guiana, with 440,000 inhabitants and leave the majority of the people nailed to crosses.

There are no stronger arguments for the abolition of white imperialism and colour bars than the condition in which the peoples of Kenya, Central Africa, Nigeria and British Guiana are today.

Since 1885, when the partition of Africa was decided at the Berlin Conference, billions of pounds worth of minerals, forest and agricultural wealth have been taken out of the colonial Empire.

As Britain herself brought British Guiana and nine tenths of the peoples of the British Empire to ruin previously, it is not surprising that the colonials have lost all confidence in Britain.

VOICE FROM THE GALLERY

By ANDREW W. RAMSEY

EXPLAINERS ARE HAVING A HARD TIME

The past several weeks have witnessed the trials and tribulations of two groups of explainers.

The press and the airlines have been filled with vivid accounts of the difficulties encountered by the Communists explainers in Korea.

These frustrated Marxists are having trouble it seems in relating their political doctrine to hundreds of Red Chinese P. W.'s who have elected not to return home.

But right in the midst of the flow of information about these Asiatic explainers came an avalanche of alibis from a group of native American explainers.

They were the Republican big-wigs, the pundits and the news commentators who loudly proclaimed the advent of the millennium when the Generals (Eisenhower, Motors and Electric) were voted into power last November.

They were busy explaining how the reverses suffered by the GOP last Tuesday in New York, New Jersey, Virginia and scores of American cities added to what happened in Wisconsin last month did not indicate a trend and a forecast for 1954 despite their earlier claims to the contrary.

MANY REPUBLICAN explainers were a little put out with voters, who did not seem to realize that when the "business man's government" took over in January it had to clean up "the mess" connected with twenty years of governmental concern for the little man before it could start its program.

They seemed somewhat irked also by the naive question: "What program?" To other explainers it was evident that the evil machinations of the ox-cart wing of the GOP headed by Governor Dewey was responsible for the reverses and that it is time for the dinosaur wing represented by Col. Robert McCormick, Senators Jenner and McCarthy and Hamilton Fish (of Martin, Barton and Fish fame) to take over from the Deweyites.

Still other Republican explainers suggested that the party did not have effective enough workers on the ward and precinct level.

THOSE EXPLAINERS who were looking for the inevitable scapegoat promptly pounced upon the hapless Ezra Taft Benson after the Wisconsin debacle but found that he would not do to explain Tuesday's losses since most of the districts concerned were industrial rather than agricultural.

Many Democrats got into the explaining act in a more jubilant frame of mind.

Some of them seemed to think that 1954 is in the bag by Republican default while others were of the opinion that the 1954 Democratic platform would have to offer some program other than opposition to the Republican administration.

It seems to this explainer that the November 3 skirmishes (understatement of the week) lost by the Republicans were lost because the GOP having been put in charge of the medicine cabinet and the family arsenal, had decided to continue its twenty-year experiment with suicide.

Having consummated a hasty marriage with the Dixiecrats and embarrassed their false god of states' rights, the Republican high command tried to move the clock back a half century in half a year.

They had a program but they were afraid to announce it.

WHEN THE PEOPLE cried for more housing, they cried socialism and cut off public housing and raised the rates ting enthusiasm run away with sober judgment and mature planning.

If there are any Negroes with constructive plans for integration, this column has not heard of them. We are just going along hopefully and trustfully, hoping for a favorable decision.

Just what we are going to do if the decisions are favorable, we have no way of forecasting, although we know that certain antecedent preparations are indicated.

The burden of getting the Negro masses ready for integration is on the Negro intelligentsia.

Aside from hoping that we get a favorable decision in the court, we wonder what are our schools doing to prepare Negroes for integration.

What are our pulpits offering in the promise?

It seems almost childish to presume that the change from segregation to integration can be effected without a minimum of preparation both on the part of whites and Negroes.

ONE OF THE GREAT HINDRANCES to full integration is the failure of privileged Negroes to assume responsibility for the underprivileged of the race, although this latter group is a serious hindrance to the processes of integration.

"O wretched man that I am who shall deliver me from the body of this death" may well become the watchword of privileged Negroes for things are so ordered in our current society that the lowly Negro is chained to his more fortunate brother, and they must stay down or rise together.

Whether the Supreme Court decision is for or against segregation, there will be no lessening of this indissoluble relation between the upper and lower strata of Negroes.

FROM TIME TO TIME this office receives communications from deeply concerned souls, relating to the Negro's crime and murderously in our large urban centers.

All manner of crime is being reported with a corresponding increase of prejudice and segregation in northern and eastern centers, where hitherto Negroes have enjoyed a fractional privilege unknown in the south.

The point is, the upper-class Negro is entirely too far from his underprivileged brother!

We are too prone to betake ourselves to our fine homes and expensive cars and publicized degrees and leave the lowly Negro to do the best he can.

The burden of formulating a program to facilitate integration is on the Negro with high degrees and prestige and privilege.

THE LACK OF EFFECTIVE communication between the upper and lower strata of Neon FHA loans. When aid to the nation's schools was demanded they pointed out that the schools should be investigated for Communism and handed over the rich tidelands oil to big business through Texas, Louisiana and California.

When the people called for more and better postal service, they concocted a raise in rates for first class mail (the only class which pays for itself) while permitting the big boys to mail unaddressed stacks of circulars and advertising junk.

To the clamor for cheap electrical power they answered by threatening to turn over the huge hydroelectric plants to private capital.

WHEN THE FARMERS cried out that they were getting less for their products, they pointed out how the farmer is by nature a rugged individualist while ignoring the fact that the consumer was paying the highest prices in history for what he ate, wore, drove or lived in.

When the man in the street groaned under the burden of high taxation, the administration called for the dropping of corporation taxes.

Starting with the premise that "whatever is good for General Motors is good for America," the administration sought to prepare a feast for big business with the idea that rich crumbs would trickle down to the poor Lazaruses under the table.

The Generals listened avidly to the demands of Negroes for an effective civil rights program while appointing the dean of racism, Jimmie Byrnes, to the U. N.

Assuming that the GOP is interested in committing harakiri, it is difficult to see how it can fail with the above mentioned weapons used with an ever increasing tempo.

Verse

Two Wives

By William H. Hunt (ANP)

When Sarah's husband lost his job
Through no fault of his own
And joined the biggest idle mob
The world has ever known.
She kept a smile upon her face,
Nor did she hang her head,
But soon went out and found a place
Where she could earn their bread.

When Polly's husband lost his job
Because his firm went broke,
She said, "You know I never shirk
When work is to be found."
And then she said, "If I must need
I don't need you around."

Now Polly's home is broken down
And Polly's morals, too,
For in the toughest spot in town
She's with the toughest crew.
While Sarah lives in sumptuous style
In luxury and love,
And angels look on her and
From Heaven up above.

The Empty Vase

By RICARDO WEEKS (ANP)

The vase is in the corner empty
Just as my life is hopeless without you.
I sorrow but I pull through it somehow
And make the best of it though we are through.
I miss the roses that you always brought
To fill the vase that you presented me.
As well as your embraces which I sought
When my foundation shook in life's mad sea.
But no more do I thrill and feel your touch
Nor get those lovely flowers with your love,
Which made you my Nirvana and brought much
Contentment with rife blessings from above.
Till you return with roses once again.
The empty vase will symbolize my pain.

groes not only explains much of the delinquency and naivete of the lowly Negroes, but it is a hindrance to the much desired integration. Believe it or not, the privileged Negro is his brother's keeper.

The few through much suffering has learned this all-important lesson. How much more suffering must we endure before we too shall learn it?

'Starless' Attucks Cagers Face Quick Test

Should We Cover Negro Colleges?

Are we running this sports page all wrong? We probably are, but what we wonder specifically is whether we are doing out our strictly-rationalized space to the wrong people.

Take the last couple of months, for instance—since Labor Day. Here we sat, like a mother with one stewed chicken and 17 kids, and tried to stretch our page or two of space (less advertising) to cover: Attucks football, Tech football, Shortridge football, Richmond football, other interracial high school football; J. C. Carroll and Mickey Bates, Bobby Watkins of Ohio State, Michigan State's interracial powerhouse, Notre Dame's first mixed team, Indiana's Hoosiers, Pooh-Pooh Purdue, the rest of the Big Ten; Ball State's Sonny Grady, Butler, Indiana Central, pro football, the World Series and all the wind-up of baseball; Willie Gardner and the Globetrotters; championship boxing bouts, and the local fight scene; junior high school football, softball; high school cross-country, and others too numerous to mention.

WITH THESE MANY mouths to feed, there simply wasn't anything left for happenings far away in which no Indiana boys, to the best of our information, took part. For that reason we haven't attempted to cover the Negro college football season.

Now, however, comes Luix Virgil Overbea of the ANP with a column (which he doesn't have space to print) in which he laments that "Negroes in Chicago and other metropolitan areas of the North and West miss . . . the thrill of giving all-out support to a college football game."

Overbea feels that because Northern fans cannot go to the Negro college games, and since the plans to televise some of these games fell through, the Northern Negro has no one to cheer for! He admits that the folks in Chicago can root "somewhat" for J. C. Carroll and Mickey Bates; but they can't be "too loyal" to Illinois, because "Michigan State has more colored players" and there have been years when there was no Negro on the team.

"Too bad for the Northern Negro city slicker that he can't keep as close a watch on teams worth rooting for as can his Southern neighbors," Overbea winds up.

NOW WITH DUE apologies to Mr. Overbea for not printing his entire column, and with the sincere assurance that we aren't criticizing him, we must say that we are well-nigh flabbergasted by the above. We feel like a traveler who has just been informed that what he took for east is really west. Is it actually true that while Caroline and Bates are re-writing the gridiron record books of all time, and while Watkins of Ohio State and Leroy Bolden of Michigan State and countless other septa stars are making headlines week after week—that the fans would prefer to be following the teams of Florida A&M, Morris Brown, Texas Southern, Maryland State and Johnson C. Smith?

We can of course understand an alumnus being interested in the athletic fortunes of his school though we long ago dropped Ole DePauw overboard; and we see some point to following the progress of a local boy who attends Southern college. We are ever willing to entertain the idea that Chicago fans are different from Indiana fans.

BUT WE HAVE been betting our shirt on the belief that our readers are rooting like hell for Caroline Bates and the whole team. We know that Hoosiers who are also Negroes have been supporting the efforts of J. C. through the years—yes, and Notre Dame, Butler and even Purdue. Around our town we find hat fans are more and more getting interested in the man and his team rather than the color—and that goes for "both kinds" of fans.

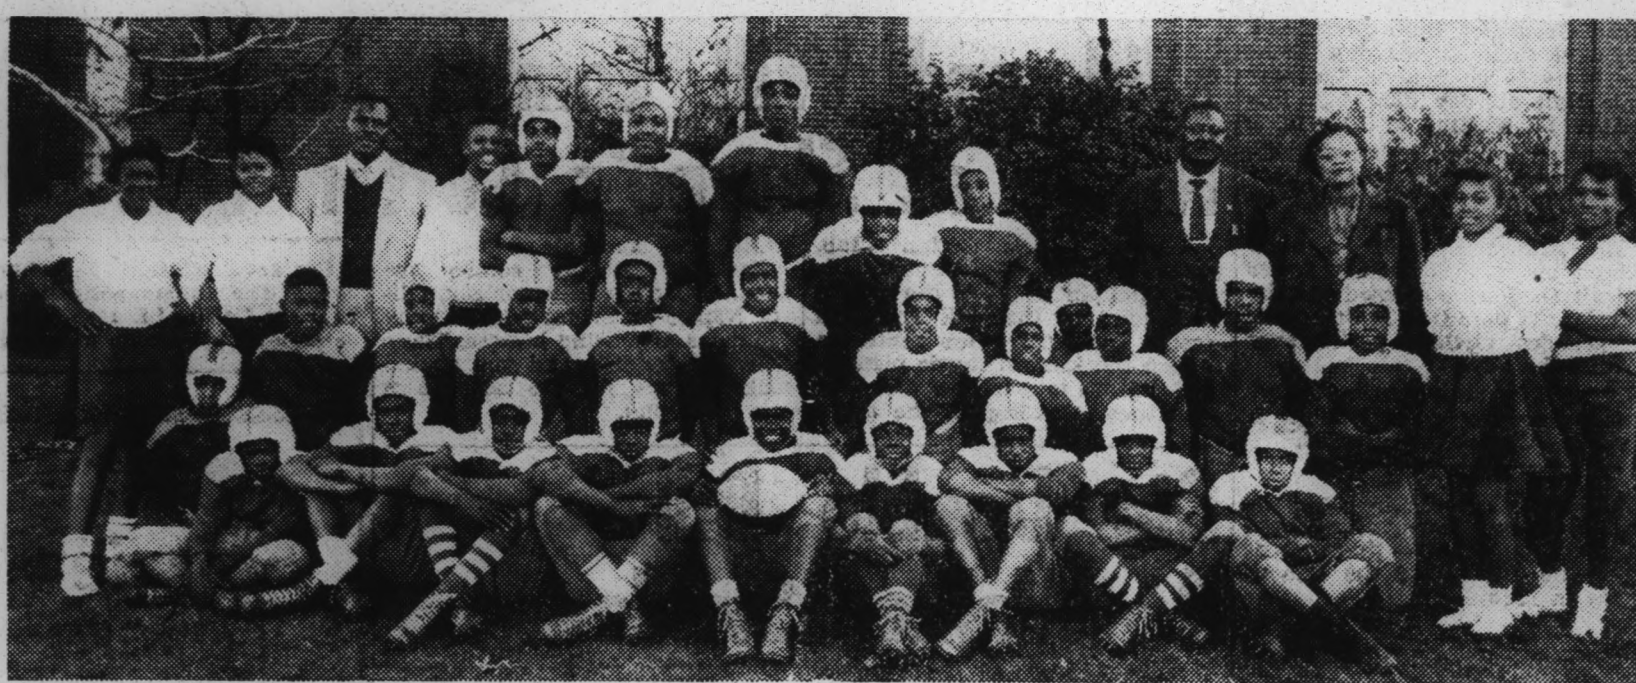

It's a long way to Tipperary and it's just about as far to Georgia, but we are here and now in Indiana, Middle West, U.S.A. These are our teams and we're for 'em, even when we cuss 'em a little. If J. C. came from Carolina to Illinois, we are not going down to Carolina to find a team to root for.

Now if this scribe is wrong, all someone please kick him in the editorial pants.

Bombshell Back In Scoring Lead

MUNCIE — Governor "Sonny" Grady, the Ball State Bombshell, raced back into the state college scoring lead here Saturday as the Cardinals defeated Evansville, 42-26.

Grady scored 23 points, count 'em, 23—to roll his season total to 78. He tallied three touchdowns and kicked no less than 5 PAT's.

SCHOOL 37'S CITY CO-CHAMPS: Starting off right on their first year of football competition, School 37's gridders won the city junior high school co-championship by going through the season undefeated, untied and unscored on. In five games and the Jamboree, they rolled up 208 points to their opponents' 0. School 84, also unbeaten, shared the title as the two teams did not meet. Shown left to right are (front row) John Johnson, Billy Richardson, William Thomas, Elroy Sweatt, Ronald McCauley, Wendell Williams, Eugene Boone, Alfred Reynolds and Donald Thomas; (second row) Jerome Johnson, Chester Johnson, Lawrence Hunt, Jerry Denning, Raymond Akers, Joe Smith, Paul Courtney, Clifton Barker, George Snow, William McBride, Gordon Woodson, Dennis Edwards, Cheer Leaders Wanda Taylor and Gwendolyn Weddington; (standing) Cheer Leaders Stella Barker and June Reynolds, Coach Albert Umphrey, Captain Richard Johnson (he was unable to wear uniform because of injury), Kenneth Woods, Jimmy Rousic, Odell Donel, William Drane, Jerome Harris, Assistant Coach Robert Horsley and the principal, Mrs. Jeannette S. Cary.

TURNER'S RICHMOND SPREE BRINGS ALL-STATE RATING

Nominations were opened, moved, seconded and closed for one position on the all-state football team this week as fullback Adell Turner put on an unforgettable performance in leading Tech to a 13-7 upset victory over Richmond.

The weather was miserably cold on Friday night at Tech Field, with a raw wind tormenting the Greenclad fans, but it was worth it to see the brilliant game played by Turner and his hepped-up teammates.

Any college in the land will be missing a bet if it doesn't try to sign Adell after that demonstration. He got in J. C. Carroll's class by gaining 175 yards; scored both the winners' touchdowns; brought his season total to 72 points, one short of the city scoring title won by Sacred Heart's Pat Lynette, and even that doesn't express his own opinion of the game.

Turner reminds us, we have decided, of Walt Disney's wolf. Before taking off he delays a moment in a kind of pivot play, and you can almost see him licking his chops as he sways from side to side, selecting the most likely victim.

Then his run is a lope until he turns on the speed—and when you think you've got your hands on him he's still a bad, bad character.

IN EXACTING HIS stellar performance, Adell followed the script for the evening, merely substituting himself for the announced star. Fans had braved the cold in the expectation of witnessing the fireworks of Richmond's Tommy Fletcher, the state's leading scorer and holder of the all-time state record of 177 points tallied last year.

Fletcher's last high school game, however, must have been his worst. He never once broke loose, and in fact wound up with 29 yards gained in 11 carries. We understand he was suffering injuries received a week earlier, and he was also suffering from too much Tech line.

The fans did get to see Tommy's automatic placekicking scoring the point after Richmond's touchdown.

FLETCHER'S RUNNING-MATE Clark Leavell, did slightly better but still was below his press antics, gaining 35 yards in 9 runs. About the best Red Devil show was given by End Charley Malcre—and even he tossed a wild lateral that resulted in the downfall of Richmond's last impressive touchdown bid.

Ken Harris, Richmond's co-captain and master of pre-game calisthenics, called the defensive signals. Ray King was another septa player.

Turner received good help on Tech's first touchdown drive from the power running of Charley Jones.

'Pony Boy' Strange Tallies Twice in Shortridge Romp

Shortridge's Jim Strange was the big gun last week as the Blue Devils closed out their football season in a blaze of glory with a rollicking 25-6 victory over Broad Ripple.

When you see Jim run, you know where they get the expression "pony haliback." He covers the turf for all the world like a fast pony.

This was well demonstrated in the second quarter when Strange, at safety, took a punt on his own 20. He trotted rapidly on a diagonal across the field, turned at the sideline, shook off one tackler, and made it look easy as he cut back and went all the way.

It was the twinkle-toed halfback's second touchdown of the game. He had scored earlier on a 20-yard pass from Quarterback Bob Branham.

Crowe's Shortest Team Plays Tough Foes First

The stars are gone from Attucks, and what will come to take their place, only time can tell.

Comet dust still seems to linger about the West 10th street gymnasium, but if there's a Hallie Bryant on the squad, he is as yet undiscovered.

The stratospheric forms of Wee Willie Gardner and Cleveland Hary have departed, leaving Coach Ray Crowe with no active player taller than 6'2"—with a starting lineup that averages under 6 feet.

True, there's a Jewell on the roster, but it's not 6'6" Boh, now at Indiana Central—it's his brother, 6'1" Leonard.

You may think you're seeing things when Robertson breaks into the lineup. But that's not Bailey the Bomber, who's also at Central now—it's his sophomore brother, Oscar or "Little Flap."

Incidentally, "Little Flap" has done some growing until he now stands at 6'1". He's the only sophomore on Crowe's squad, and his basket eye proves that accuracy runs in families.

TWOULD BE WRONG to imply that the geriatric Crowe must rebuild from the ground up this season, like the coach at a brand-new high school. Mingled in with the goal-shooters who have yet to win their wings are notes such familiar figures as the canny Harold Crenshaw, 6'1½" forward who has been making like a junior Goose Tatum for these two years; Winford O'Neal, 6'2" center who at times looked like a million dollars last season; and William Ma-on, 6' forward who has proved that he knows his way around a basketball court. Until this week, Crowe could also count on Sheddick Mitchell, returning pivot man whose 6'3½" and 185 pounds make him the biggest of the Tigers. But both the boy and the team suffered a blow Tuesday when Sheddick was taken to General Hospital for an operation.

HE WILL BE OUT a month—and it is during just that period that the Tigers will need all the help they can get. A glance at the schedule shows that, like last year, Attucks will go up against the worst of the worst. The Tiger trail will start Friday, Nov. 20, at Tech's gym, with respectable Ft. Wayne North Side providing the opposition.

Maybe the Tigers can hitch a ride back with the Archers, for he very next night Attucks plays always-strong Ft. Wayne Central at Ft. Wayne.

Another three days whisk by, and on Tuesday, Nov. 24, the basketball season will open at Butler Fieldhouse. The teams will be Attucks and Sheridan, and where have we heard that name?

Things won't be getting any easier Dec. 4 when the Tigers host South Bend Riley, or Dec. 11 when they go to Terre Haute to meet Germeyer's state finalists.

MAYBE BY THE TIME that rocky road has been traveled, Crowe will know whether this shortest team he's ever coached has qualities to make up for its lack in height.

Or maybe new stars will develop from among Crenshaw, Maon, O'Neal, Norman Crowe, 5'8" guard, whom Crowe names as his ward, whom Crowe names as his "erling five if he "had to start 'em"; and the other members of the 16-player squad, who are:

Willie Burnley, 6'2" junior; James Cornett, 5'9" football end; Frank Hazenwood, 5'9" senior; William Hampton, 5'11" junior; Jewell; Ludwig Johnson, 5'10½" senior; Bobby "Bebo" Jones, 5'11" two-year veteran who's fresh from halfback duties; Willie Merriweath-r, 6'1" junior; Mitchell; Robertson, and Russell White, 5'10" junior.

WILL FRIDAY THE 13TH BE GAVILAN'S UNLUCKY NIGHT?

By LUIX VIRGIL OVERBEA For ANP

On the night of Friday, the 13th of November, Johnny Bratton will seek to lift the welterweight crown off the head of Kid Gavilan in a 15-round bout at Chicago Stadium.

The champion is a slight favorite to retain the crown in a division in which he does not expect to fight again. Unless something drastic happens to him in this battle, Gavilan will enter the ring next as a challenger for Carl (Bobo) Olson's recently won middle-weight championship.

Gavilan and Bratton have fought twice before. The first bout gave Robinson and Ike Williams at their best) and four draws.

FOR BRATTON, THIS is another climax to one of his many "up" periods during an up-and-down career. At his best Bratton has been rated as a man with exceptional natural ability, not only a boxer, but to slug and to move about in the ring. He has everything needed to make a champion except apparently the mental attitude.

The belief is that Bratton really can fight when he wants to. In 82 fights he has won 59 (32 by knockouts), lost 20 and been held to a draw three times. He has looked invincible against some of the best fighters and then turned around and looked just as miserable.

Broken jaws and brittle hands have provided him with alibis for his various failures. Every time he has lost a fight by a broken jaw or a broken hand he has come back as a top contender, only to disappoint when the big opportunity arrived.

With cut-rate prices prevailing, this bout should draw a large crowd. In the old days a Bratton fight meant a full house, with half the fans there to cheer him and the other half to see him get whipped.

DURING 1953 THIS ringsider has been wrong on the big ones quite often, but nevertheless he's going out on the limb to say Bratton will win this one.

Johnny is both a puncher and a boxer, and he is still in his prime. Gavilan never has been truly a puncher, but he has been a strong fighter with lots of stamina and know-how in the ring. But either he has slipped or he fights only as much as he has to.

The Keed is not at the end of his trail yet, but being knocked down by Carmen Basilio forecasts a much rougher road for him in the future. We look for Bratton to come through for the first time—not by a kayo, however.

Caroline Outruns Grange

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (ANP) —Making 71,119 Homecoming fans happy, Sophomore J. C. Caroline shattered Red Grange's rushing record as he led Illinois to a 19-3 victory over Michigan on Saturday.

Caroline gained 184 yards in 30 carries, two more yards than the entire Michigan team had both on the ground and in the air. Adding to this 66 yards on three punt returns, he broke a university record for yards gained in one season, set by Grange 30 years ago.

Grange's mark for a full season was 1,260 yards, set in 1923. Caroline now has 1,345, with two games yet to play.

J. C. also is within 36 yards of the all-time Big Ten record for yards gained in a season. He has rolled up 738 in Conference play, while the record is 774, set by Wisconsin's Alan Ameche in 1951. Pass interceptions, punt and kickoff returns do not count in this tabulation.

Caroline is the nation's top collegiate ground-gainer in rushing.

HIS RUNNING TWIN, Mickey Bates, scored two more touchdowns to bring his total for the season to 11, only two short of the Illinois scoring record held jointly by the famed Buddy Young, Grange and Johnny Karras.

Grenadier Club's Birthday Party at Masonic Hall Sat., Day and Nite

THE YEAR'S BIGGEST SHOW . . . All entertainers and musicians are urged to sign early for participation on the Recorder's annual Christmas Benefit show. . . . T would be a good deal, fellas and gals!!

The Press Club enjoyed a swellegant party at Ellison's Tavern, over on Blackford St., Wednesday nite, November 4. . . . Mrs. Thelma Beacham, owner of the tavern, lavishly entertained members with a delicious repast. . . . The sumptuous feast was prepared by Nellie Mae Gilmore and served by Mary Jane Douglass. . . . Members present were: James (bondsman) Payne, Leroy (sporty) Johnson, Amos (barbecue) Hartwell, Jimmie (playboy) Dunlap, Roy (newspaperman) Miller, Leverett (Pontiac) Bronaugh, Bobby (Melody Inn) Dunn, Leo (George's Bar) Lesser Jr., Arthur (playboy) Porter, Dupree (sporty) Dancy and yours truly.

Following the party, several members with Mr. and Mrs. Emmett (fotog) Brown, retreated to Mr. Lesser's swanky penthouse for light refreshments. . . . Incidentally, Mr. Brown opened The Brown Show Case last Monday at 417 Indiana. . . . It was a gala affair and the visitors loved it.

VISITING . . . Mr. and Mrs. Otto Primus spent a week with their daughter in the Motor City. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Williams will spend the Christmas holidays in Washington, D. C. . . . Lovely Marie Johnson is back from 3-wks. vacationing in New York City. . . . She'll be tickled pink to have her friends drop in at Jack's Liquor store on West Michigan. . . . Mrs. James Payne and son spent a few days visiting friends and relatives in South Bend and Idlewild, Mich.

HOSPITALIZED . . . George Railey of the Royal Grill, is presently confined in the Veterans' Hospital. . . . Louis Pierson, well known along the stem, is doin' nicely in Sunny-side. . . . Would like to see more of his friends.

DEATHS . . . Arthur Pryor and Fitzhugh Cook died several days ago. . . . Their deaths were a surprise to the writer, who knew both men for years along the stroll. . . . We talked to Mr. Cook two or three days before he died, and he asked us to be sure and give him a good write-up on his forthcoming wedding. . . . So you can understand our shock.

RAMBLING WITH THE NEWS . . . Jumped into the Sunset Cafe and Russell Williams' Downbeat No. 1 and found things quite groovy. . . . also played a while at Sewell Davidson's Melody Inn, where we had a long chat with the popular Bobby Dunn. . . . Also dropped into Tillie's Lounge and found the bistro rockin'. . . . Dropped back to the Subway and picked up on a certain lovely, who was really enjoyin' herself. . . . Our good friend Leroy (sporty) Johnson dropped in a few nites back for a quiet chat. . . . Which reminds us of the fact that we haven't had a visit from Little Johnny (sporty) Johnson in quite a spell. . . . The same also holds true for another good friend Reggie Avington, the man who is doin' a good sellin' job for Blatz BEER in several states. . . . WHY NOT GIVE HIM A LITTLE COOPERATION, BY ASKING FOR BLATZ. . . . Then the TAVERN OWNERS will have to stock it and Mr. Avington will have more MOOLA and the company will be pleased, dontchaknow.

JUMPIN' WITH THE NEWS . . . Had a long chat with Sonny Brown a few nites back at his Golden West Club in company with Managing Ed. Scotty Scott. . . . The fella is doin' a grand job at the spot. . . . A nice scribe jumps in from Margaret Williams Primus, who is now living in Detroit. . . . The lady sends regards to Charles Betty, Betty Taft, Opal Tandy and Scotty Scott. . . . Norman Whitlow dropped in 2 Sattidays back, and we were sure glad to see him. He is the man who lends MONEY.

THINGS WE DIDN'T KNOW . . . Over 3,000,000 Negro children are in school, and we have 75,000 businessmen, more than 100,000 professional workers; there are 60,000 teachers, 25,000 preachers, 5,000 nurses, 4,000 doctors, 1,500 dentists and 1,000 lawyers. . . . Kinda gettin' up on the hog, dontchathink.

LIFTED FROM "HOOSIER HEADLINES" . . . "COP SHOP —A patrolman who pinched without fear or favor all the prostitutes and procurers on his beat was rewarded the other day with a new beat—one way out in the sticks. What this young copper didn't know is that a high ranking cop had the same downtown beat he had. But this bigshot didn't see the brothers. His reward was quick promotion." This ought to put certain guys BOOTS on. . . . If they can DIG.

DOPE ADDICTS . . . Dope addicts are roamin' the streets in droves. . . . It's common to see young girls along the stem "high as a kite," or "higher than a Georgia pine" with eyes aglare and steppin' like peacocks. . . . Seems as if our part of Naptown has gone dope C-R-A-Z-Y. . . . And the obscene parties we hear about are enough to knock you cold. . . . One of them told your reporter: "Man, get hep, drop the wet goods and get on 'dry gauge.'" Some of them are really frantic and that's puttin' it mildly. . . . It's a fast 'buck' racket—but you CAN'T WIN.

VISITING HERE . . . Step Wharton, nationally known pianist, brought his family to town Tuesday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Bessie Woods, who lives in Burdial Parkway. . . . The Whartons flew in from New York City, and will leave Tuesday for Buffalo, N. Y., where Mr. Wharton opens for a two weeks engagement. . . . Step assured us that he will try and be here for The Recorder Christmas show.

HITS THE ROAD . . . The inimitable Mopps Marshall, flashy dresser and entertainer deluxe, will embark soon on a tour of the country, doing one-nite stands with his banjo, singing and dancing routine. . . . The fella is tops in the entertainment field and is open for engagements. . . . Direct all inquiries in care of the "Saint," Indianapolis Recorder, 518 Indiana Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.

Top Entertainment With Swing Combo

Will and Will Combo Jumpin' Nitely at Sharpe's Cotton Club

The Grenadier Club announced this week their forthcoming Birthday Party to be held at the Masonic Hall all day Saturday, November 14, starting at 10 a.m.

Dancing and entertainment will be featured on the second floor during the evening with music by Persian Temple swing-combo.

The gala affair will be highlighted by Nobles wearing fezzes and all Daughters dressed for the occasion. It promises to be one of the grandest birthday parties ever held in the city.

There'll be no admission charge at the door. The general public is invited. All tables reserved.

Children's records by Bozo the Capitol Clown have never been off the lists of best-selling records since the "birth" of the famous figure in 1946.

The phonograph industry recently standardized the size of holes in phonograph records of all speeds.

"The Bunny Hop," originated by Ray Anthony and his Orchestra, is the latest dance craze to sweep the country.

Les Paul and Mary Ford make most of their records in a specially designed $60,000 sound studio in their home in Oakland, N. J.

Al Martino, the popular singer, is a former Philadelphia, Pa., bricklayer.

The only popular magazine in the United States devoted exclusively to phonograph records is "Music Views," published in Hollywood.

"Wheel of Fortune," by Kay Starr of Capitol Records, is one of the nation's all-time best-selling records.

James Sharpe's Cotton Club, located at 244 W. Vermont, is really jumpin' nitely to the melodious tunes of the Will and Will Combo. The aggregation continues to risk the kind of music pleasures patrons love to hear and they have them standing in the aisles waiting for some place to sit.

Featured in the combo are Glenn Douglass on tenor sax, Oliver Napier on drums and Dorothy Simmons as singing hostess. These boys are terrific and you should make a date now to hear them this week end.

Big Double Bill At Walker Sunday

Now showing on the Walker screen through Saturday are two fine pictures, the first stars Lloyd Bridges in the "Tall Texan" and Arthur Franz in "5 Angles on Murder."

Starting Sunday for 4 days will be Vincent Price in "House of Wax" and Sterling Hayden in "Kansas Pacific."

Come out and bring the family and enjoy a real good entertainment bill.

Thomas A. Edison believed hit songs had such short periods of popularity because of fatigue of inner mechanisms of the human ear.

One of Capitol Records' all-time best-selling hits is a non-musical record—"It's in the Book" by Johnny Standley of the Horace Heidt Show.

For good printing "In a hurry," phone The Indianapolis Recorder Printing Co., at LI. 1545. You will be pleased and proud of the work.

Milt "Mr. Organo" Buckner And His Trio Now at George's

The great Milt Buckner, known professionally as "Mr. Organo," has arrived back in Naptown with his trio and is currently packing in at George's Bar and Orchid Room, located in the heart of the main stem (415 Indiana Ave.).

Mr. Buckner came to town last Monday in a blaze of glory, and a capacity house was on hand to greet him and his side men. It was really an occasion one seldom sees and the great "Mr. Organo" took it all in stride, and his first rite's offerings had the bistro rocking to the rafters. The fella is real gone and really plays too much music.

Don't fail to catch the mellow trio at the Saturday matinee and Saturday nite swingaroo. And don't forget the boys will be jamming for your pleasure at the Blue Monday matinee from 3 p.m. till 7 p.m.

The Colvinaires from Hollywood, opens at the spot on Nov. 23.

Swing Row — My Beat

By DAVE CLARK

HOUSTON, Tex. (ANP)—Hi Ya! dear readers. Here we are in Houston, Texas, the oil capital of the nation, the city where they jump with a beat; the beat created by such known greats in the entertainment circles as T-Bone Walker, Illinois Jacquet, Arnett Cobb, Milton Larkin, Tom Archia, Gate-mouth Brown, Carl Mike Thompson, Plummer Davis, and others.

The city where Don Robey is going great things with his Peacock records. Don has one of the greatest modern record plants in the country with a synchronized sound studio, pressing plant, and an ultra fine suite of offices all under one roof.

The city where Evelyn Johnson heads one of the nation's top booking agencies handling some of America's top attractions including B. B. King, Lloyd Price, Willie Mae Thornton, Johnny Ace, Little Richard and the Tempo Toppers, Al Grey and his orchestra with Rosetta Perry, and Clarence Gate-mouth Brown.

In Houston we found a friend in "Buttercup." Robinson Crusoe had his man, Friday, and Buttercup jumps the blues a la Joe Turner.

T. J. FOWLER AND HIS BAND MAKE RECORDS FOR UNITED DETROIT (ANP)—T. J. Fowler and his band that rocks the blues flew into Chicago this week for a recording session for United Records.

The Fowler band is known from coast to coast as America's greatest blues band.

The band is now topping the bill at Max Roach's Club Royal Blue in Detroit.

Going into its 15th week at this spot, the band is being held over for 12 more weeks. It has featured some of the country's top blues instrumentalists.

MUSICAL UPBEAT

By BOB WOMACK

SIDEMEN ON LOCATION GIGS: Many steady jobs have opened here in the last six months or more for the cats, which includes the Cotton Club, PP Club, 303 Club and other top spots. In fact, I see better engagements for all in the very near future. However, some of the musicians who are lucky enough to have these jobs do not take care of them the way that they should, namely: by being late to work, half high when they do show up, failure to return to the bandstand on time after intermission, no respect for the one in charge of the unit and above all, if offered more "bread" or a few more nights in the week by some other bandleader, will leave present gig without at least a week's notice to their employer. Speaking of the latter, we all like money but it is a way to obtain same in a business way. I am sure that the musicians in question wouldn't do their daytime jobs this way or would they?

I wonder if the entertainers who do some of the above mentioned things have ever stopped to realize that maybe, in the future they might have to ask a favor of their ex-boss. May I state that WE ALL CAN'T LIVE IN THIS WORLD BY OURSELVES. We must help each other. There is no shortage of GOOD musicians here.

ENTERTAINERS ARE STILL WONDERING WHY we haven't advanced farther in the music world thru television, radio, screen, records and the stage. Well, I think these are a few motives that will help those seeking success namely: "He or She Profits Most Who 'Serves Best'." Music Exalts Life. "The Fine Arts Lift the Soul." Have been said to be great encouragement to those who are looking for advancement in the field of entertainment. And remember "Success is a ladder which cannot be climbed with your hands in your pocket."

WILLIE B. SCOTT better known as "Scotty" is the business manager of the Will and Will combo now being featured at the Cotton Club. The cat plays some bad doghouse. LaVon Kemp and his big band wailed awhile at the recent Eli Lilly dance which was given at the K. of C. Hall. Millard "piano man" Lee, one of Naptown's all time greats, passed thru the city last week on his way to Texas to sign up with the nationally known Don Robey, bookers of bands and other entertainment. Millard told this writer that he has a "hot shooting crew of six all-star musicians out of the southland," and "that he would soon record for the Dot label."

JIMMIE COLE and his sensational unit recently recorded more sides for the United Recording Company of Chicago. I think that he has one of the greatest little bands in the land. "Pookie" Johnson and his new combo are doing a very nice job at the PP Club. Is it true that the popular Lola Barbee, vocalist who is now on vacation in the east will not return to the city? Your guess is as good as mine. Tillie's Lounge out Northwestern-way is still packing in the crowds. I hear, that it is SRO. Dud Storms and his famous band are now playing many out of town gigs. It is rumored that Les "Bear" Taylor and group will soon be looking for a job.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN THE RECORD WORLD: Teddy Wilson, the peer of jazz pianists has a new LP album out which consist of such tunes as "Darn That Dream," "Tea For Two," "Emaline," "All The Clouds Roll Away," "Everything Happens To Me," and "Tenderly." For swingy stuff at a relatively faster pace are "Oh Lady Be Good" and "Liza." (Clef) For those who are in the mood for more serious music pick up "Liberace At the Piano-Concerts For You," with Paul Weston and orchestra assisting. This pianistic personality of recent years turns his attention to works by famous composers and great masters in the classical field (Columbia).

Big Jay McNeely steps off with a fiery instrumental called 3-D, which comes out as a battle between horn, tenor and drums. A real scorcher. Mate is the novelty shuffle pacer, "Texas Turkey" (King). Earl Hines and crew gets away in rambling fashion on an original "In The Attic." On the other side is "I Dream Of You" (King). Latest by Todd Rhodes and members, "Beet Patch" (Flip) is Sadie Madison blues—vocalizing on "Let Down Blues" (King). EARTHA KITT will sooner or later get around to singing in English. First there was "Uska Dara" in Turkish, now "C'est Si Bon" in French, backed by "African Lullaby" which contains phrases in Swahili.

FAYE "Shake A Hand" Adams who appeared here recently with my old friend, Joe Morris and his orchestra at the Sunset Ballroom told yours truly that she had learned that her recording of "Shake A Hand" will establish a new record in the Rhythm and Blues field. Distributors over the nation are calling for more sides. That the Herald Recording Company has waxed additional sides, one of which is a new number penned by manager Phil Moore.

ALL ENTERTAINERS, please don't forget to sign up for the annual Recorder Xmas Show which is billed for Saturday nite, December 19. Some of the best talent in these parts will be there. I am almost certain that such top flight crews as "Pookie" Johnson, Will and Will, Bert and her Buddies, Buddy Parker, Tillie's Lounge and many others will be there to entertain you.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Gladys White

Funeral services for Mrs. Gladys White, resident of Chicago, whose body was returned here where she had lived more than 25 years, were held Oct. 31 at the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home with burial in New Crown.

Mrs. White died in Chicago Oct. 26. Born in Louisville, she attended public schools after moving here and was a member of Jones Tabernacle AMEZ Church. She had been employed while here as a laundress.

Surviving are the husband, James White, Chicago; mother, Mrs. Alice Stovall, Indianapolis, and an aunt, Mrs. Marie Crockett, Indianapolis.

David Hunter

Funeral services for David James Hunter, 25, who died at General hospital Nov. 6 were held in the chapel of the Peoples Funeral Home Nov. 10 with burial in New Crown.

A lifelong resident of Indianapolis, Mr. Hunter lived at 818 Pomeroy and was an employee of the Coca Cola company.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Jessie Crenshaw Hunter, a grandmother, Mrs. Essie McGee and an aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Sanders.

James Shack

Funeral services for James Shack, 47, 952 N. California, who died Nov. 4 in General hospital were held at the Stuart Mortuary, Nov. 9 followed by burial in Crown Hill.

A native of Clarksdale, Miss., he had lived here 34 years and helped operate the defunct Shack Brothers Cleaners, 801 Paca from 1937 to 1951. Lately he had been employed as special delivery carrier for the Indianapolis Post-office.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Elvora Shack, three sons, Charles Richard Shack and Frederick Shack, both of Indianapolis and Vernon Shack, stationed with the Navy at San Francisco; three brothers, Booker T. Shack, Indianapolis; Pleasant Shack, Long Island, N. Y.; and two sisters, Mrs. Elma Rathford, Hopkinsville, Ky. and Miss Luvenia Shack, New York.

Mrs. Ordie Williams

Funeral services for Mrs. Ordie Mae Williams, 50, 1827 Miller, who died Oct. 30 at Ripley, Tenn., where she was visiting, were held Nov. 6 at Bethany Baptist Church, with burial in Floral Park.

Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home was in charge.

A native of Ripley, she had lived here 23 years and was a member of Bethany Church.

Surviving is a brother, Harrison McDamon, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ola Beecher

Funeral services for Mrs. Ola R. Beecher, 64, who died in a nursing home Nov. 2, were held at the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home Nov. 5, followed by burial in New Crown.

A native of Pleasant Ridge, Ky., she had lived here 20 years and was a former school teacher and social worker. She was a member of the Cateria club, the North Side-New Era Baptist Church, and a former employee of the Indianapolis Juvenile Center.

She is survived by her husband, William H. Beecher, and a sister, Mrs. Alberta R. Beauchamp, Chicago.

Mrs. Lucy Tinnin

Mrs. Lucy Tinnin, 63-year-old charter member of Mt. Paran Baptist Church, died Oct. 29 at General hospital and was buried Nov. 2 in Crown Hill, following funeral services at Mt. Paran.

Mrs. Tinnin, a native of Indianapolis, lived at 2726 Boulevard Place and was a seamstress.

Surviving are the husband, David Tinnin; two daughters, Mrs. Doretha McDougall and Miss Emma Lois Tinnin; a brother, Harrison Dawson, a son, Richard Tinnin; and three sons, Mrs. Eva Douthett, Miss Ethel Dawson and Mrs. Edna Owens, all of Indianapolis.

Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home had charge of the funeral services.

Mrs. Ida Ranson

Mrs. Ida Ranson, 64, who died at her residence, 351 W. 11th, Oct. 29, was given funeral services at the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home Nov. 2 followed by burial in Crown Hill.

She was born at Milton, Tenn., had lived here 34 years and was a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Her husband, Edward Ranson, survives; also a sister, Mrs. Nora Miller, Indianapolis; and three brothers, Clifford and Walter Cantrell, Indianapolis, and Nathan Cantrell, Arvontown, Tenn.

Bury R. D. Roberts,

Funeral services for Robert D. Roberts, 54, 945 N. Pershing, who died Oct. 26 at Plant 5, Allison Division, General Motors, while at work, were held at the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home Oct. 31, followed by burial in Floral Park.

Mr. Roberts was having lunch in the cafeteria when seized with a heart attack. He died several minutes later in the plant hospital.

Born at Cave Springs, Ga., he had lived here 30 years and had been employed at Allison's 10 days less than 10 years when he died.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Virginia Roberts; three sons, James E. Curtis, and John Roberts, Indianapolis; a stepson, Edgar Alexander; sister, Mrs. Sallie Bradley, Indianapolis; three brothers, Elisha, James and Porter Roberts, Pittsburg, Pa., and five grandchildren.

Mrs. Priscilla Miller

Funeral services for Mrs. Priscilla Miller, 74, who died Oct. 27, were conducted by the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home at the Garfield Baptist Church, of which she was a member, on Oct. 31, followed by burial in New Crown.

Mrs. Miller, born at Pleasant Ridge, Ky., lived at 1411 S. Rural. She had resided in the city 40 years.

She was survived by her husband, Jerry Miller; a sister, Mrs. Alberta R. Beauchamp, Chicago, and another sister, Mrs. Ola Beecher. Mrs. Beecher died seven days later—Monday, Nov. 2.

Stewart Elbert

Funeral services for Stewart Elbert, 65, 724 Fayette street, who died in Veterans hospital on W. 10th street Oct. 27, were held at Willis Mortuary Oct. 30, with burial in Crown Hill.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Find Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H. The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores.

And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly.

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Members of the Five Royals club asked the Snooper to relay their apologies to the kids who were invited to the club's masquerade ball recently and didn't enjoy themselves, thanks to the few hoodlums who came uninvited and started a lot of trouble.

It's too bad a few kids like to give the impression they're "tough guys" with no going around spoiling things for other teenagers. When a group is trying to do something worthwhile, you'd think the others would be so glad of it, they'd try to help instead of breaking it up.

The Five Royals said a special apology and thanks to the NRG's president and members, who were special guests and helped a lot afterwards.

I suppose you've suffered long enough wondering who the Five Royals are. Well, the "regulars" are Maxine Caldwell, Betty Kelly, Lettie Martin, Evelyn Branch and Clara Walker. The others are Dorothy Reynolds, Veta Shirley, Joan Buckner, Rose Suggs, Gloria Shirley and Carita Bonduant.

By the way, to the person who claims he has written the same letter to "Teen Talk" four times and still hasn't seen it, the reason is simple: each letter has been unsigned. We still don't print 'em, you know.

Also, "Teen Talk" is not a match-making bureau, so you're wasting time when you send in news saying some girl is just dying for some stud to notice her. It's your time and your three cents, so if you want to waste them, go ahead—but such stuff will not get in the paper.

It seems that Junie Campbell is falling very hard for Eulla Dunkerson, but Willie "Neg" Oates says he kills for her, too. Let's solve the riddle of this triangle.

It's been said that Arvin Tipton is nothing but a cool breeze blowing through the air. Well, it seems that he is still blowing near Florence Bacon's pad.

WE SAID A LITTLE while back that Florence "Tissie" Walker and Lee Harper were seeing a lot of each other, but I hear that's the wrong stuff. A friend quotes Odell Donald as saying Tissie is his girl and always will be.

Say, have you heard that Claudia Ellis and William Gilmore are having a secret romance by phone? Get wise, Gilmore, your girl wants to see you in person. . . I see that cool Shirley Caldwell and John Adams seem to be getting along all right. Keep up the good work, kids.

Say, Addie "Sister" Cantrell, what's happening between you and Arthur Lee Oates? We thought maybe we would hear wedding bells.

What's this Gloria Suggs is trying to pull? We know she still has a crush on Nat Reed, and he still has eyes for her. Come on, now Gloria, stop playing around with Robert Brown and get hep.

Harold Dunkerson seems to be crazy over Mary Jo Marks, and she is going crazy over him. See what love will do to you? . . . Rhoda Stokes may be the shy type, but she is madly in love with Johnnie Mack Brown. She moved Betty Fowlkes right out. Didn't think she had it in her, did you?

Mary Douglass, rumors have it that you and Richard Hardwell are having a secret romance. If that's true, why not drop Ronald Covington and give Phyllis Anthony a chance? Be a friend in need!

James Dorsey, who was the rib you were with a Sunday or so back? You know, you took her to show, then to the skating rink, then walked her to 23rd and Yella Dunkerson, could it?

MARY WASHINGTON, who is this cute stud you are going steady with? Do you think it will last? Just kidding, Oscar Clark, she wouldn't do you like that—would she? Norvell Donald seems to be seeing a lot of Barbara Miles, said he is making up for lost time. Right, Barbara? Don't feel too bad, Paulette Taylor.

Bonnie Bunton, what is James Hicks trying to prove? We all know he is getting married next month, but is still going out. What will this chick on the Westside say, Hicks? Make up your mind, old man!

Leonard Graves, who is this fine babe you walk to class every day? Don't tell me you have fallen!

Jackie Coleman and Fred Moore seem to be getting along fine. . . Say, Ester Webster, why don't you give Peter Waffer a chance? If you don't, Geraldine Westborn will. Right, Geraldine?

Tordina Weathers seems to be cutting in strong with Howard Kyser in school. Don't you think school work comes first, kids? You could have fooled me! . . . The $64 question: Who does Delores Thurman go with? Give you five seconds to answer.

Interesting items in the mail department: "I, Mr. William E. Pollin, do hereby swear that I love one, only one, and no other Miss Beverly Hill, better known to me as Bev." . . . Make what you will of this one, children.

Just who is tops with Maxine Stanley, Robert "Professor Bobby" Flowers or James Enoch? Maxine and James play together in the cafeteria a lot, I hear. . . It seems a triangle is growing up—Sylvia Coleman kills for James Spaulding, while he has eyes all for Marcia Hayes.

IS IT TRUE that Loveless Jones kills for Beverly "Mouse" Douglass? The grapevine has it that she doesn't want him any more, supposedly killing for a certain Pvt. Eddie Smith. Isn't love grand? They tell me Donald Erwin is playing for all the girls at the same time, but trying very hard for Billie Joyce Black. Well, Don, it won't work. She's up to your five. . . It won't work for Tony Butler with Janice Cowherd, either, because Janice can play too.

They tell me somebody's going to get hurt if Charles Bishop doesn't stop running around with all the Attucks babes. What's happening here? . . . JoAnn Clark and Earl Conner are still going steady. Keep up the good work, kids.

Wilson Lorick is madly in love with Betty Bowman, but he should be careful, because a lot of boys would like to change places with him. . . It seems it's a head-over-heels deal with Maxine Raine, as far as Warren Holloway is concerned.

Paul Harris is trying to play the field with some of the Southside girls, but it seems he can't make the girls latch on. . . Dortha Moore and Chester Johnson were supposed to be madly in love, but it seems Dortha has pulled a powder. Is that any way to act?

Things seem to be going smoothly with Patricia Burt and Harold Powell. Keep up the good work, kids. The same goes for Doris Williams and Samuel Hill. . . It seems as though Leon White is having a grand time in the Air Force, but he still kills for Delores Smith.

SPEAKING OF PEOPLE in the service, Wayman "Sig" Davis, Harry Webster and the great Don "Pretty Rocky" Cooke continue to play it cool over in No Man's Land, now that the shooting has stopped. Rocky's an MP and says woe be unto Sig if he catches him putting it down wrong.

I'm sure you guys and gals around McLean place have heard of the Lela Shields-William Turley deal. Well, it seems Lela has fallen in a big way for a Shortridge stud, Fred Parker. William had better catch her before the fall is too hard. . . It seems Alice Rogers sees something extra special in William Caldwell. Let's see how this deal works out.

Trudy Holliday and Reuben Hill are supposed to be nuts over each other these days. . . I hear Gilbert Wells has popped that question that every girl wants to hear to Bernice Gardner. Wonder what her answer was. . . Could it be that Jerry Campbell and Martha Smith are falling for each other?

Mau Maus Causing Financial Crisis

NAIROBI, Kenya (ANP)—Kenya is facing a financial crisis because of Mau Mau activities, according to Ernest Vasey, the colony's treasury chief.

Chief reason is that much of the taxpayers' money is going to fight the Mau Mau. Vasey said. More financial aid will be sought from Britain.

The British government already has voted $7,000,000 in emergency funds to help the East African state. Despite this, the Kenyan deficit this year will probably reach nearly $7,000,000, Vasey said. Because of this, the finance head expects to ask further aid. He will go to London this week to discuss the matter.
